American Legion holding meeting

The Dallas American Legion Daddow-Isaacs Post 672 will hold its regular monthly meeting at 8 p.m. Friday, Sept. 9 at the post home on Route 415 in Dallas. All members are encouraged to attend and new members are welcome. Events for the upcoming year will be discussed. The membership drive for 2006 is under way and members are asked pay their dues on time.

For any information, call John M. Emil Sr. at 675-4461.

Recycling drop-off center open Sept. 10

The voluntary recycling drop-off-center for Lake Township will be accepting items on the second Saturday of every month. The next opening will take place from 10 a.m. to noon Sept. 10 at the township building on Route 29.

The following items may be dropped off: aluminum and bi-metal cans; clear, brown and green glass; and plastic No. 1 and No. 2. No motor oil containers or scrap aluminum can be accepted. Newspaper will also be collected if packed in paper bags with glossy inserts re-

PUBLIC MEETING

The Back Mountain Council of Governments will hold a public information meeting at 7 p.m. Sept. 15 at the Kingston Township Municipal Building, 180 East Center Street in Shavertown. The meeting will discuss the multi-municipal open space greenways outdoor recreation master plan for Dallas, Dallas Township, Kingston Township and Lehman Township.

The plan is being funded by the Pennsylvania Department of Conservation and Natural Resources with assistance from Luzerne County and the participating BMACOG municipalities. The planning is being directed by the Back Mountain Council of Governments, which has hired Cahill Associates, Inc. of West Chester to perform the necessary technical work. All meeting attendees will automatically become members of the OS-GORMP advisory committee.

The purpose of the meeting is to explain the goals and objectives of the open space and recreation plan in more detail. Draft goals and objectives will be presented and discussed. Some of the topics to be discussed include the need for more open space in Back Mountain communities; the establishment of greenways to link existing or potential open space, recreation, and cultural facilities; the adequacy of outdoor recreational facilities; the possible expansion of ecotourism and other economic benefits; and other recreation and open space issues.

Tourney, clambake set

The annual charity golf classic and clambake sponsored by the Rotary Club of Dallas will begin with a shotgun start at 12:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 19 at Irem Temple Country Club. Proceeds will benefit many local charities supported by the Rotary Club.

Sponsorships are available for $100 and signs will be displayed near a green or tee. Players for the captain and crew tournament are also needed. The entry fee is $100. Entry forms may be obtained from any Rotarian or by calling chairman Kevin Smith at 696-5420. The deadline for hole sponsors is Sept. 12 and players are also encouraged to register no later than that date. In addition to clams, the clambake will also include steak and shrimp made by Rotary chef Eric Martin.

moved. No items will be accepted before the center opens.

Fall holiday sale to benefit library

A fall Halloween and Thanksgiving sale will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Sept. 17 in the Community Room of the Back Mountain Memorial Library. The library is located on Huntsville Road in Dallas.

The sale will feature an assortment of fall wreaths, centerpieces, wall hangings, indoor and outdoor decorations, lighted Halloween novelties and costumes, Thanksgiving decorations and tableware, and other items.

The sale will benefit the Back Mountain Memorial Library and will be conducted by members of the Halloween fund-raising committee. For more information, call the library at 675-1182

Civil War group holding meetings

The Wyoming Valley Civil War Round Table will hold two presentations, including Kim Glemboski's Center for Anti-Slavery Studies and the Underground Railroad on Sept. 8, and the Tony DeLacy's Licensed Battlefield Guide on Oct. 13.

The Civil War Round Table holds its monthly meetings at 7 p.m. on the second Tuesday of each month in the lower level of the Daddow-Isaacs American Legion on Route 415 in Dallas.

This is not a reenactment group. Anyone interested in becoming a member or learning more about the Round Table is invited to attend a meeting. For more information, call Leonardo at 675-0468 or Pelton at 675-5790.

Starfires dance set for Sept. 17

An Evening with the Original Starfires dance will be held from 6 p.m. to midnight, Sept. 17 at Stax & Co., Route 415 in Dallas. The music will begin at 7 p.m. The event is part of the annual Dallas Days Weekend.

Tickets for the dance are $25 and are available at the Dallas Borough Municipal Building, 675-1389; Stax & Co., 675-7007; and Ochman's Coin & Jewelry, 675-5872.

The ticket price includes a buffet from 6-9 p.m. that features oven roasted steamship round of beef, baked haddock with lobster sauce, and chicken marsala, with mushroom sauce. A cash bar will also be available.

Dallas Days Weekend begins Sept. 16 and will culminate with the third annual Dallas Harvest Festival from 1-6 p.m. Sept. 18 on Main Street in Dallas.

Anyone with questions about the festival should call borough manager Joseph Moskovitz at 675-1389.

DANCE TRIO CAPTURES FIRST PLACE

Three members of the Back Mountain Dance Studio recently combined to win the Best of Trio title at the Performing Arts Alliance Talent competition in King of Prussia. Beth Seybert of Dallas, Forty Fort's Allison Krakosky and Nicole Frusciante of Swoyersville also won first place in the trio tap and specialty divisions. The three girls were members of the dance line Locomotion, which captured first place in three categories. From left are Frusciante, Krakosky and Seybert.
