

Sports Week

Demetria Szatkowski of Dallas collides with Nanticoke Area's Carlie Kamaraski in an effort to head the ball.

Lake-Lehman's Chris Prater (22) attempts to tackle Tunkhannock's Matt Affieri during WVC junior high football game.

Travis Debona of Dallas battles Nanticoke Area's Tyler Smith for the ball during a junior high soccer game.

FOR THE POST/CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK

Lake-Lehman quarterback T.J. Stepanski gets tackled by Tunkhannock's Andrew Haraschak, Rich Parduski and Nathan Schloder.

Junior high, major action

The Dallas and Lake-Lehman junior high school football and soccer teams continued play in the Wyoming Valley Conference last week. The Dallas junior high soccer team is coached by Russ Eyet, while Ahmed Elgayar coaches at Lake-Lehman.

In football, the Dallas coaching staff consists of Bob Zaruta, Ken Kopetchne, Mitch Onzik and Tommy Van Horn. At Lake-Lehman, the football team is under the direction of Nick Daddio, Gary Grandinetti and Mike Wagner.

In upcoming games, the Lake-Lehman soccer team is scheduled to play at Tunkhannock on Sept. 30 and host Hazleton Area on Oct. 1. Dallas is scheduled to play at home against Wyoming Seminary (Sept. 26) and Valley West (Sept. 28) and at Coughlin (Sept. 30).

On the football field, Dallas plays at Crestwood on Oct. 1 and hosts Hanover on Oct. 8. Meanwhile, Lake-Lehman travels to Meyers (Oct. 1) and GAR (Oct. 6).

Coaches are encouraged to e-mail their game results to thepost@leader.net no later than 3 p.m. Wednesday. A complete list of schedules and times can be found at high-schoolsports.net (Lake-Lehman) and dallasd.com (Dallas).

Dallas junior high soccer player Ellen Arnaud scores for the Mountaineers during a game against Nanticoke Area.

Lake-Lehman tight end Zack Cragle attempts to make a diving catch.