Eisenhower's grandson to speak at College Misericordia

Presidential scholar David Eisenhower will speak about his research and writings concerning the American presidency during a special event Friday, Oct. 7 at College Misericordia.

Eisenhower's presentation will be part of the inaugural Friends of the Mary Kintz Bevevino Library fund-raising dinner which will be held at Oct. 7 at the school.

Eisenhower will present information gleaned from his scholarly work as well as personal perspectives and memorable moments from his first-hand involvements with presidents and government.

A senior fellow and head of the Institute for Public Service at the Annenberg Public Policy Center at the University of Pennsylvania, Eisenhower teaches about the presidency, the Cold War and leadership and serves on the editorial board for the Presidential Studies Quarterly.

Eisenhower is grandson of President Dwight D. Eisenhower and is the namesake of the presidential retreat Camp David. He has lectured widely in recent years, both at universities and public meetings, covering 45 of the 50 states.

He is a former officer in the US Navy and worked for a time as a syndicated sports columnist and as a front office person for the Washington Senators and the Philadelphia Phillies.

The evening includes a 5 p.m. reception in the McGowan Room of the Bevevino Library followed by dinner at 5:45 p.m. in Kennedy Lounge, located in the Banks Student Life Center.

Tickets are $65 per individual or $125 per couple.

For reservations, call the College Misericordia cultural events office at 674-6719.
