

Brian Gregory, left, and Kelly Murphy were fourth runners-up for Dallas Homecoming King and Queen.

Below, Lauren Lando, right, was crowned Dallas Homecoming Queen last week during the school's annual ceremony. Richard Smith, left, was crowned Homecoming King.

KDP PHOTOGRAPHY

TIMES LEADER STAFF PHOTO/FRED ADAMS

Given the royal treatment

Lauren Lando and Richard Smith were crowned Homecoming Queen and King, respectively, as Dallas High School celebrated its annual Homecoming last weekend. Lando and Smith – along with the four runners-up – were honored during halftime of Monday afternoon's football game against Wyoming Area.

Lando is an honor student who is active in many school organizations. She also volunteers for several non-profit groups and is a member of Our Lady of Victory Church in Harveys Lake. Lando was also recently crowned as the Luzerne County Fair Queen.

The other finalists included Hillary Adams and Christopher Parrish, first runners-up; Elizabeth Heintz and Joshua Reese, second runners-up; Kristy Kravitsky and Sal Infantino, third runners-up; and Kelly Murphy and Brian Gregory, fourth runners-up.

Hillary Adams, right, was first runner-up for Dallas Homecoming Queen. She was escorted by Jared Weinstock, left, who was substituting for Homecoming King first runner-up Chris Parrish.

KDP PHOTOGRAPHY

Josh Reese, left and Elizabeth Heintz were second-runners up for Dallas Homecoming King and Queen.

KDP PHOTOGRAPHY

Sal Infantino, left, and Kristy Kravitsky were third-runners up for Dallas Homecoming King and Queen.

KDP PHOTOGRAPHY