Former area minister publishing new book

Former Trucksville minister, Grove L. Armstrong Jr. will publish the book "The Kingdom That Is Transforming The World" on Jan. 3. The book is a study of the history of civilization. After seven years of research for the book, Armstrong came to the conclusion that "It is Jesus Christ that has transformed life in this world from the terrible experience it was when Jesus was born into the wonderful experience it is for most of us today." The book is intended to be a resource for home-schooled and Christian school students, as well as students of history.

Armstrong, who lives in Casa Grande, Ariz., was minister of the former Park Neighborhood Free

Methodist Church in Trucksville for 13 years. During that time, the congregation built the building on Carverton Road, which is now home to the Cross Creek Community Church.

During the summer months, the 73-year-old Armstrong and his wife tour the country in a motor home and help build homes with Habitat for Humanity. The couple also volunteers at Camp Susque in Trout Run, Pa.
