

Gorilla trek, cruise on the Nile, wildlife safari part of trip to Uganda

Wilkes University anthropologist Jim Merryman will be leading a trip to Uganda on June 15-26.

There are 20 spaces available for the trip.

Merryman speaks Swahili and has lived and worked in East Africa for 12 years. The cost of the all-inclusive trip is $4,750.

The group will travel by 4-wheel drive vehicles to some of the most beautiful and exotic locations imaginable.

Group members will experience abundant wildlife close-up, as well as the chance to interact with a culturally diverse range of Uganda's hospitable peoples.

The group will stay in a number of upscale lodges and tented camps overlooking spectacular scenery.

The lodges have full amenities including pools. Trip highlights also include:

- A gorilla trek in the rainforest, more than 7,500 feet high, to spend an hour with the last of the mountain gorillas.

- A Nile cruise for three hours to its source, Murchison Falls, where the Nile dramatically spills forth from Lake Victoria. This section of the Nile is teeming with crocodiles, hippos and elephants.

There will be a picnic at the top of the falls.

• A wildlife safari giving you the chance to photograph, from up-close, Africa's amazing diversity of wildlife.

On Lake Edward, the group will take a boat trip through the Kazinga Channel to witness the world's largest concentration of hippos (30,000) with the dramatic backdrop of the glaciated Ruwenzoris (Mountains of the Moon) on the Congo side of the lake.

Registration should be made as soon as possible.

To register, or for more information, call Merryman at 570-408-4043.
