

BOYLE WINS AMERICAN LEGION ESSAY CONTEST

Lake-Lehman High School senior Mandy Boyle recently took first place in the Dallas American Legion Daddow-Isaacs Post 672 essay contest. The annual contest is open to public, private, and home-schooled students in the Dallas and Lake-Lehman school districts. The theme of this year's contest was "Let Freedom Ring." Essay contest participants and family members were honored during a breakfast at the Post Home. Clarence Michael served as the essay chairman, as well as the master of ceremonies. This year's judges were Kep Gottshalk, Steve Batory, John Oliver and Michael. Boyle received a $300 savings bond and will compete in an inter-district competition. The second place winner was Christopher Jayne of Dallas High School, who received a $250 savings bond and a second place medal. Lake-Lehman's Bryan Cardillo was the third-place winner and received a $100 savings bond and medal. Honorable mention awards were given to Dallas students Kristen Thompson, Rosemary Shaver and Kyle Baines all who attend the Dallas School District. They each received a $50 savings bond. Attending the breakfast to honor the essay contest winners, from left, are Michael, Thompson, Boyle, Shaver, Jayne and Dallas American Legion commander John Emil Sr.
