

Area students invited to enter contest

Junior high, middle school and high school students in the Dallas and Lake-Lehman school districts – as well as home-schooled student of the same age – are invited to enter the second annual Dallas Post Office Pictorial Cancellation Contest. The event is being sponsored by the Dallas Post Office and the Dallas Harvest Festival committee.

A pictorial cancellation is a special stamp cancellation made to commemorate special events. The cancellation is made for the Dallas Post Office and used to cancel stamps, upon request, on first-class letters and postcards. The cancellations will be made from Sept. 17 through Oct. 17 in honor of the Dallas Harvest Festival.

The artwork should answer the question "What does the Dallas community mean to me?" The artwork must be 4-inches by 6-inches. Designs should be simple, single color with limited detailing. Do not use words in the artwork.

All entries must be submitted to Dallas art teacher Claire Morris at the high school or mailed to Morris' attention at Dallas School District, P.O. Box 2000, Dallas, Pa. 18612. Be sure to print your name, address and phone number on the back of the entry. Entries must be received no later than May 12.

Preliminary judging will be done by the Dallas School District. The designs of five finalists will be given to the Dallas Harvest Festival committee for final judging.

In addition to having the artwork appear on letters and postcards, the winner will receive gift certificates from several Back Mountain businesses.

For more information, call the Dallas Post Office at 675-0131.

DALLAS STUDENTS STUDY ROMAN CIVILIZATION

Seventh grade students in the classroom of world history teacher Harry Haas at Dallas Middle School recently celebrated Roman civilization by holding a classroom banquet. The students prepared Latin recipes at home and brought them in to share with the class. Among the many notable dishes were libum bread, spiced pears, and candied dates. The seventh graders also learned how to tie and wear a toga. Participating in the event, from left, are Joey Michael, Chris Reese, Brandon Harding, Tyler Shutlock, Lauren Rosen, Kelsey Maas, Amanda Sotko, Bryann Cave, and Kurtis Manganela.
