

FOR THE POST/CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK

The bad weather didn't mean all work and no play. From left, Daryl Savage, Billy Haller, Nick Dorish and Jeremy Kizer have some fun riding their bikes through the water.

Water reigns down on Back Mountain

FOR THE POST/CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK

Shavertown volunteer fireman Jerry Paxton frees a log that was jammed near the Main Street bridge.

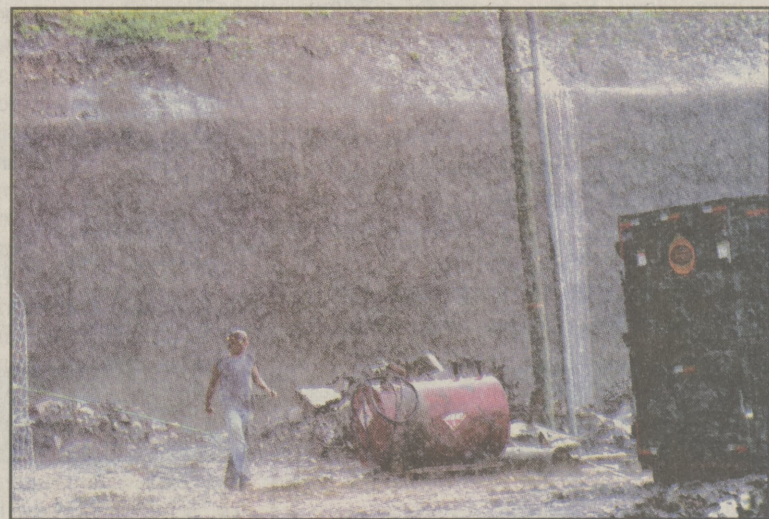

TIMES LEADER STAFF PHOTO/DON CAREY

Members of the Shavertown Volunteer Fire Company clean up after heavy rains cause some flooding near the station on Main Street.

Several homes along Lower Demunds Road in Dallas Township were hit hard by the flooding.

FOR THE POST/CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK

FOR THE POST/CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK

Construction work on the new Walgreen's drug store in Dallas continued despite torrents of rain and water streaming down from Main Street.

FOR THE POST/CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK

The Bradley, Specht, Delevan, Shadie and Nause families from Swoyersville and Forty Fort set up camp in Shavertown after being evacuated Wednesday night.