

PICKERING SOCIETY LEARNS ABOUT 109TH FIELD ARTILLERY

The Colonel Timothy Pickering Society Children of the American Revolution recently held its regular monthly meeting at the headquarters for the 109th Field Artillery in Wilkes-Barre. Organization historian Kiera Smith presented a scrapbook of historical events, photos and newspaper clippings relating to the Great Train Wreck of Sept. 11, 1950 to museum curator David Kline, who gave the group a tour and provided interesting historical information about the 109th Field Artillery. The Colonel Timothy Pickering Society is based in Dallas. For join the organization or for more information, e-mail coltimpickeringsocietycar@yahoo.com. Attending the recent meeting, from left, are Kandis Venn, Harveys Lake; Mark Swick, Tunkhannock; Kiera Smith, Ashley; David Kline; Kathleen Smith, Ashley; Rhiannon Borchert, Dallas; and Stefen Venn, Harveys Lake. There are an additional six members of the organization who reside in Dallas, but were not able to attend the meeting.

Franklin Township receives $10,000 grant

Franklin Township was recently awarded a $10,000 grant from the Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development.

The money will be used to renovate part of the township's municipal building.

"I am pleased that Franklin Township has been awarded this grant," said state Rep. George Hasay, who made the announcement. "The funding will allow the township to make much-needed improvements to their municipal building."

The grant was awarded through the DCED Community Revitalization Program.

The program provides funding for construction or rehabilitation of infrastructure, building rehabilitation, acquisition and demolition of structures or land, revitalization or construction of community facilities, purchase or upgrade of machinery and equipment, planning of community assets, public safety, crime prevention, recreation, and training.

Local government, municipal and redevelopment authorities and agencies, industrial development authorities and agencies, non-profit organizations incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth, and community organizations engaged in activities consistent with the program's guidelines are eligible for funding under the program.

JAYNE FINISHES SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Dallas resident Lindsay Jayne and her horse Lonewood Figaro are representing Luzerne County at the Pennsylvania State 4-H Horse Show at the Farm Show Complex and Expo Center in Harrisburg. The four-day event concludes today. The Dallas Middle School seventh-grader qualified in the Hunter Under Saddle Ponies category. In addition to her 4-H accomplishments, Jayne has also received numerous awards and championships in other competitions. On Nov. 18, Jayne and Lonewood Figaro will receive the Green Hunter high-point championship award at the Northeastern PA Horsemen's Association's year-end banquet. The daughter of Beth Rosencrans and Sam Jayne is a member of Bridles and Grooms 4-H Club.

DOWN'S DONATES HAIR TO LOCKS OF LOVE

Abby Downs, a fourth grade student at Wycallis Elementary School in Dallas Township, recently donated 11 inches of her hair to Locks of Love. The organization uses donated human hair to make wigs for adults and children who have lost their hair through illness and chemotherapy. Downs was motivated to donate her hair after a friend of hers lost his hair while undergoing chemotherapy treatments.
