Hunting licenses for deer, bear being sold

The Pennsylvania Game Commission Northeast Regional office will be open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 18 and Nov. 25 for the sale of hunting licenses.

"With bear season opening on November 20, and regular firearms deer season set to begin on Monday, November 27, many hunters will want to buy a hunting license at the last minute," director Barry Warner said. "Last year, the demand exceeded the hunting license supply for many of our local issuing agents. Hopefully, we will be able to ease some of the demand on those issuing agents by opening our doors on the two Saturdays prior to the Monday start of the bear and deer seasons."
