

Old Shoe a perfect fit for Dallas

Dallas players celebrate with the Old Shoe Trophy after the game.

Dallas wideout Brad Faqula pulls in a pass over Lake-Lehman defensive back Cody Lamoreaux.

The Old Shoe will stay in the Dallas High School trophy case for at least another year. The Mountaineers used a strong defense and balanced offensive to post a 35-0 win against rival Lake-Lehman in the 59th annual Old Shoe Game last weekend at Mountaineer Stadium. Under first-year head coach Carl Kern, the Black Knights (0-10) came into the contest battling a plethora of injuries. Despite the final score, the Lake-Lehman players showed a lot of heart during the contest.

At press time, No. 1 seed Dallas (7-3) was preparing to host No. 4 West Scranton (5-5) in the first round of the District 2 Class 3A playoffs.

Lake-Lehman running back Mike Prater attempts to get past Dallas linebacker Robert Hayes.

Lake-Lehman captains, from left, Kevin Butler, Derek Shurmanek, Bill Holena and Josh Steele walk to midfield before the start of the Old Shoe Game.

Dallas captains, from left, Greg Jerzak, Brad Faqula, Robert Monk and Adam Tamanini walk to midfield for the coin toss.

PHOTOS BY FRED ADAMS/TIMES LEADER