GUEST COLUMNISTS

Have you always wanted to write a newspaper column? Would you like to express your views about national and international issues? Do you see yourself as the next Ann Coulter or Leonard Pitts? Well, this isn't the opportunity for you.

But if you're a creative writer with a passion for the people and issues involving the Back Mountain community, you might be the person we're looking for.

The Dallas Post, one of the region's oldest and most widely-read weekly newspapers, is looking for members of our community to write guest columns. Columns may be either serious or light-hearted, but must be relevant to the Back Mountain.

Our guest columnists are paid a competitive per-column rate. Successful candidates must have the ability to meet strict deadlines.
