MAHON GETS 100TH CAREER SOFTBALL HIT

Joscelyn Mahon needed four hits to grab the 100th hit of her softball career - and she got just that. Going 4-for-4 last Monday, Mahon not only reached the milestone of her scholastic athletic career but lifted the Lady Knights to a 9-3 victory over Hanover Area. A 10-letter winner at Lehman, Mahon is also a member of the field hockey team and the basketball team. She plays centerfield on the softball team. Mahon has signed a letter of intent to play field hockey at Providence University. Shown here following the game where Mahon got her 100th hit are, from left, Colleen Mahon, mother; Jim Mahon, father; Joscelyn Mahon, Sheri Metz, assistant coach; and Jess Harvey, head coach.

Bandits, Seminary battle it out

The Back Mountain/Wyoming Seminary games are turning into real classics in the Bandits' first season.

The two schools have played four boys games this season with all but one being a one-goal game so when the Bandits U13 boys team traveled to Wyoming Seminary for the regular season final for both teams, there was nothing but fireworks expected. And the teams did not disappoint.

Bandits struck first but the game was close throughout with no team having more than a one-goal lead. In the fourth period with the score tied 7-7, Seminary took an 8-7 lead, having scored with only 2:25 left in the game.

After the goal, Back Mountain was hit with a penalty and was one man down for the final minute of the game but tied the game with only eight seconds left in regulation, forcing overtime.

In the overtime period, the Bandits had their chances with one shot hitting the crossbar and the other going
