nually since 1990, recognizes a member of the campus community who consistently works to improve the quality of student life for the students at the campus in Lehman. The recipient is chosen by the Student Activities Coordinator Jackie Warnick-Piatt based on knowledge of outstanding volunteerism to the Activities Department.

Wysocki, of Lehman, began her career at Penn State Wilkes-Barre in July of 2000 in the Continuing Education department and now works in Student Support Services. She was recognized for her exceptional leadership as co-chair of the Campus Environment Team where she co-coordinated such programs as Free Fun Fridays, the Martin Luther King Jr. Week of Community Service, and the Poverty Awareness Meal. She is one of four members of her immediate family currently enrolled at Penn State University.

ning, implementation and all aspects of the center, including the Guaranteed Placement Program. She will build collaborative relationships and serve as the contact for administrative officers concerning occupational/industry trends and projects.

The Insalaco Center for Career Development at College Misericordia also provides career development and job search counseling for students and alumni, and oversees experiential educational programs, like internships and job shadowing.

Rushmer has been employed at College Misericordia since 2004. She most recently was the interim director of the center after serving as its corporate relations coordinator and assistant director.

Rushmer earned her bachelor's degree in biological sciences with a minor in chemistry from the University of Pittsburgh. She received her master of business administration with a concentration in leadership and marketing from Binghamton University.

She and her husband, Jason, reside in Shavertown.

Friedman Observatory open Monday nights

The Friedman Observatory at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus in Lehman Township offers opportunities to view the night sky through a computerized 16-inch Meade telescope. The observatory is open to the public starting one hour after sunset on clear Mondays. If Monday is not clear, the observatory will be open Tuesday at the same time.

For more information regarding viewing opportunities, contact Thomas Winter at 675-9278 or txw2@psu.edu; and Rovnak at 925-2561 or jer32@psu.edu. Information is also available on college's Web site at www.wb.psu.edu. Go to the quick links for the Friedman Observatory.

Families sought for exchange students

ASSE International Student Exchange Programs (ASSE) is seeking local host families for boys and girls from a variety of countries around the world. These students are 15 to 18 years of age, and are coming to this area for the upcoming high school year or semester. These personable and academically select exchange students have good English, are bright, curious and anxious to learn about the USA by living as part of your family, attending high school and sharing their own culture and language with you.

The exchange students arrive from their home country shortly before school begins and return at the end of the school year or semester.

To become a host family or find out more about ASSE and its programs, please call Sue 1-732-251-1517 or 1-800-677-2773. Or visit us at www.asse.com. There are hundreds of students to choose from, so call - and begin the process.
