Kaylee Hillard hikes Canyon

Eleven-year-old Kaylee Hillard of Dallas recently spent a week in Northern Arizona.

While there, she hiked the highest peak in Arizona, Humphrey's Summit, which is 12,633 feet above sea level. Kaylee spent three days in the Grand Canyon with her cousin, John Reed, from Rieglesville, PA and her aunt, Colleen Reed, a Grand Canyon hiking expert.

During the hike, temperatures soared to over 111 degrees and Kaylee and company managed a pre-dawn hike on June 15 out of the massive expanse.

Kaylee's other adventures included a float trip on the Colorado River from the Glen Canyon Dam to Lee's Ferry.

Kaylee resides in Dallas with her mom and dad, Larisa and Keith Hillard and sister, Britney. An active soccer player and talented artist, Kaylee, according to her Aunt Colleen, was an inspiration to all who met her and received many "high fives" from fellow hikers.
