picked up any expenses associated with the burn and provided food and beverages to the firefighters.

Approximately 30 firefighters filled the magistrate's court room at the Trucksville Fire Station recently to undergo a structure burn session training class that prepared them for a controlled burn of an acquired structure.

The structure burn session is a 16-hour program conducted through the Pennsylvania State Fire Academy.

Members of Trucksville, Shavertown, Jackson Township, Franklin Township, Luzerne, Kingston, Plymouth Township and Mount Zion fire departments participated in the practice session. Trucksville Fire Department sponsored the program

FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION • July 25 • Rated PG-13; 86 Minutes

This award-show skewering comedy follows the cast of an atrociously sappy independent film called Home for Purim and their delirious reaction to internet rumors and entertainment show speculation that they may be up for Academy Awards for their performances. Writer and director Christopher Guest (This is Spinal Tap, Best in Show, A Mighty Wind) brings together his loyal troupe of performers with a sprinkling of new faces for this film portraying talented indie thespians stung by Oscar buzz with his usual deadpan wit, carefully crafted satire and close attention to detail.

THE VALET • August 8 • Rated PG-13; 85 Minutes

Hilarious slapstick, an intricate and lively plot, tick-tock timing and a variety of unusual characters make this charming French farce an old-fashioned joy. When a billionaire CEO gets caught leaving a posh Paris hotel with his supermodel mistress by a paparazzo he quickly concocts an outrageous plan to save his marriage and company. He bribes the hotel's car service valet, also captured in the photo, to pretend that he and the model are a couple in order to mislead the tabloids and his wife (Kristin Scott Thomas). Meanwhile he must convince his mistress, accustomed to an expensive life style, to live with the valet in his cruddy apartment until the dust settles and they can continue their affair. (French with English subtitles)

THE NAMESAKE • August 15 • Rated PG; 122 Minutes

The latest film from Bollywood Director, Mira Nair, based on a best-selling book, follows two generations of the Ganguli family, exploring the immigrant experience. After an arranged marriage in Calcutta, the couple moves to New York in the 1970s. The story intimately portrays how Ashima and Ashoke settle into their marriage while struggling to adjust to a new culture and maintain their Indian customs. Upon the birth of their children they make the emotional decision to stay in America for their sake.
