Mountaineer football team raises money

The Dallas Mountaineer football team raised money for the Back Mountain Library Auction by competing in a pie/sponge contest against Lake-Lehman. The group raised more than $200 to benefit the library.

All-Stars enjoy great season

Members of the Back Mountain American 8-9-year-old Little League All-Stars enjoyed a great season, even turning a rare triple against Plains Purple to get out of a bases-loaded jam.

Members of the team are Aaron Becker, Chandler Caruso, Brandon Clemow, Lee Eckert III, Steve Hannon, Nick James, Josh Orlandini, Grant Payne, Steve Scaffidi, Jackson Taylor, Jayson Strausser and Tomko.

Coaches are Leo Orlandini, Jim Payne, Jack Shaver and Jay Strausser.

Camp counselor Pat Murray, of Dallas, was in charge of this group that included Michael Anderson.

Future Mountaineers?

It may be hot but football is not that far away—at least high school football isn't. With games beginning the Friday before Labor Day, players are itching to get started working on their gridiron skills.

Dallas High School football coach Ted Jackson conducts a football camp every year for youngsters who hope to one day play for the Dallas Mountaineers.

Members of the Dallas High School football team coaching staff, current players and former players assisted Jackson with the camp.

The three-day camp stressed all aspects of offense and defense, including throwing, running, receiving, blocking and tackling. Every player was given an opportunity to play each position.

Dallas High School football coach Ted Jackson Sr. advises Stephen Darling to take care of himself during football practice at the camp.
