

Mastering the latest tools of the trade. Helping our commercial clients with printing and packaging. Finding technical solutions. That's what's in it for me. I joined The Times Leader in 1987 after completing my MBA at the University of Scranton. Since then I have seen many system changes and new additions. The best of which is timesleader.com.

Now, not only do our presses hum; so does our website.

Get online and see what's in it for you. And drop me a line at pshitut@timesleader.com to discuss how our operations can help you.

What's in it for you?
