AMATO'S DONATION TO MU'S COLLECTION BENEFITS SCHOOL CHILDREN

Misericordia University's "Stuff the Bus" program received a donation of $5,000 from Joe Amato, owner of Joe Amato Properties, during the institution's recent daylong Fun & Festivities celebration. A colorfully decorated Misericordia van was conveniently parked on the campus access road behind Mercy Hall. Students, staff and faculty volunteered their time throughout the day to collect backpacks, assorted school supplies and monetary donations that will be given to children who attend the after-school tutoring center, Kids Café in Wilkes-Barre, the outreach program, Mercy Services in Wilkes-Barre, and the Catherine McAuley House, transitional shelters for women and children in Plymouth and Scranton. Participating in the "Stuff the Bus" check presentation at Misericordia University, from left, are Michael MacDowell, president; Christine Somers, director of Campus Ministry; Joe Amato, owner of Joe Amato Properties; Marilyn Millington, vice president of Berkshire Asset Management; and Judith Ellis, manager of corporate, government and foundation relations at Misericordia University.

WAYNE SCHMOLL MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP ESTABLISHED AT LCCC

Progressive Group Alliance recently made a donation to the Luzerne County Community College Foundation, Inc. to establish a scholarship at the college in memory of Wayne Schmoll. At the time of his death, Schmoll was employed by Keyco Distributors as manager of the Keyco Outlet in Forty Fort. He was instrumental in assisting many restaurateurs to organize and operate successful businesses. The Wayne Schmoll Memorial Scholarship at LCCC will be awarded to culinary/hotel and restaurant management students based on grade point average and financial need. Attending the presentation were, from left, first row, Deb Winter, Exeter, New Hampshire, vice president, Distributor Development East, Progressive Group Alliance; Frank Kowalski, Wilkes-Barre, president and CEO, Keyco Distributors; Thomas P. Leary, Kingston, interim president, LCCC. Second row, Sandra A. Nicholas, Kingston, executive director, LCCC Foundation, Inc.; Jim Phili, Trucksville, associate professor, hotel and restaurant management and coordinator, pastry arts, food production, LCCC; Salvatore Shandra, Pittston, department chair, hotel and restaurant management, LCCC; Gary Mrozinski, Taylor, dean, business and technologies, LCCC; and Peter Lello, Pittston, major gifts/planned giving specialist, LCCC.
