Anyone wishing to have a spot may do so by calling Doug and Nancy Jones at 333-4608 to reserve a spot for $5. If you need a table, you may also reserve one for an extra $2. Limited tables are available. Refreshments will be sold by the youth.

The church is located on Creamery Road, Centermoreland.

CIVIC BRIEFS

See Uranus from PSU/WB

The large blue-green planet known as Uranus will be at its closest approach to Earth on September 10 and the best place to see this planetary occurrence will be at the Friedman Observatory at Penn State Wilkes-Barre.

Known as the seventh planet from the sun, this impressive planet shines non-stop within our solar system like a blue gem. Originating from Greek mythology, the planet is named after the god of the heavens Uranus.

The Friedman Observatory is open to the public and the Penn State community beginning at 9 p.m. during Daylight Savings Time (now through Nov. 3) and 8 p.m. during Standard Time (beginning Nov. 4) on clear Monday nights. Weather permitting, aspiring astronomers will get the chance to see Uranus at Opposition.

For more information about the Friedman Observatory, contact Dr. Thomas Winter at 570.675.9278.

En Plein artists exhibit works

Members of the Pennsylvania

En Plein Air Society are exhibiting their work during regular business hours throughout the month of September at the Berwick Hospital Center Gallery, East 16th Street, Berwick. A meet the artists reception will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 9.

Back Mountain residents who are members of the society include Sue Hand, Dallas; Charles Woodworth, Hunlock Creek; and Charlotte Kindler, Shavertown.

Civil War Round Table begins 11th year

The Wyoming Valley Civil War Round Table will begin its 11th year on Thursday, Sept. 13, with guest speaker Jim Pangburn, returning by popular demand to present his program on "Confederate General John Brown Gordon."

The program starts at 7 p.m. in the lower level of the Daddow-Isaacs American Legion, Route 415, Dallas.

Events benefit Earthly Angels Autism Fund

Fundrive 4 A Cause 3 to benefit the Earthly Angels Autism Fund of the Luzerne Foundation will be held Friday, Sept. 14, through Sunday, Sept. 16, in Harveys Lake and Dallas. The majority of the events are free and open to the public.

This year's theme is "West Meets East" and the event is dedicated to the memory of Dominick V. Amato Jr., who lost his life on June 7 while driving home from work.

Speaker will discuss workers with disabilities

Tiffany Robinson, Department of Public Welfare, will present "Medical Assistance for Workers with Disabilities" at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 19, at the monthly Tunkhannock Autoimmune Support Group meeting at the Tunkhannock Library Community Room, 220 W. Tioga St.

All are welcome to this free event. No reservations are required. Call 1-888-995-8787 or visit www.lupuspa.org for more information.

Sweet Valley Fire ham dinner

The Sweet Valley Volunteer

Fire Company will hold a family style ham dinner from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 22.

Flu clinics for seniors

The Area Agency on Aging for Luzerne and Wyoming counties, in conjunction with Erwine Home Health and Hospice, will be offering flu clinics in senior centers. Pre-registration is necessary. Erwine's will bill Medicare, First Priority Health, GHP Gold, and GHP commercial insurance for your flu vaccine. If insurance does not cover the cost or if individuals do not have insurance, the cost of the flu shot is $35. Individuals age 60 and older who are interested in this program are encouraged to contact the senior center closest to them to pre-register. Schedules for center flu clinics will be published at a later date. The Dallas senior center can be reached at 675-2179, and Wyoming County senior center at 836-2324.

Community Assn. plans craft market

A craft and flea market will be held by the Monroe Township Community Association from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 22, at the Old Beaumont School, off Route 309 in Beaumont.

A light lunch and baked goods will be available. There is ample free parking. Vendors are needed at $10 per table. For more information, Call Barbara Wall at 639-5496 or Mary Patton at 298-2463.

Meadows seeks volunteers

The volunteer department at the Meadows Nursing Center in Dallas is recruiting volunteers to help escort residents in wheelchairs to in-house physical therapy and the beauty/barber shop on a substitute basis. Placements are mornings from 9:30 a.m. to shortly after noon. Wheelchair training is provided.

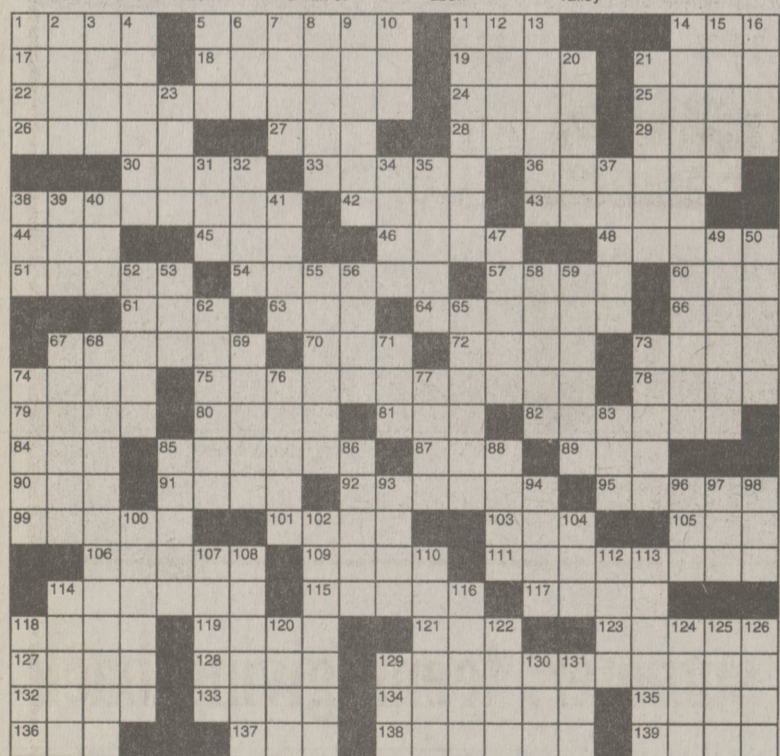

Escort positions are also available in the Activities Department which provides social events, religious services, and therapeutic programs for residents daily. Placements are available for mornings, afternoons, and some evenings.

For more information, call 675-8600 ext. 195.

GO FIGURE!

by Linda Thistle

The idea of Go Figure is to arrive at the figures given at the bottom and right-hand columns of the diagram by following the arithmetic signs in the order they are given (that is, from left to right and top to bottom). Use only the numbers below the diagram to complete its blank squares and use each of the nine numbers only once.
