

Get your Dallas Days Dance tix

This year's Dallas Days Dance will feature local musical talent from the 70s and 80s, so make it a plan to come on out and dance all night long in the huge open-air pavilion at Irem Temple Country Club in Dallas on Friday, Sept. 14.

Kicking off this very special evening from 7 to 8 p.m., listen to the folk/soft rock sounds of the trio "Just Us."

Then, from 8 p.m. to midnight, dance to the musical talent of southern rock legends, "Abilene."

A limited number of tickets are available at $25 per person (advance sales only) and may be purchased at Joe Nardone's Gallery of Sound locations in Kingston, Wilkes-Barre (Mundy Street), Dickson City and Clarks Summit; and at Carpet Concepts in Wyoming (Tony, 237-7711), Ochman Coins and Jewelry in Dallas (675-5872) and the Dallas Borough Municipal Office (675-1389).

Ticket price includes beer, soda, snacks and Grotto Pizza. A cash bar will also be available.

Visit Rotary booth

The members of the Rotary Club of Dallas invite everyone to stop by their food booth at the Dallas Harvest Festival for some great food at reasonable prices.

All proceeds benefit the Rotary Club charities which include an annual shopping spree for 45 children at Christmastime, book scholarships for six college-bound students, dictionaries for more than 500 area third graders and more.

The Rotary booth at the Dallas Harvest Festival is on Main Street, across from the Dallas Borough Building.
