

MARY LOU SWINGLE
Volunteered with many organizations

Mary Lou Swingle, 79, of Dallas, died Wednesday, Sept. 19, 2007, at Manor Care Health Services, Kingston.

Born in Plymouth, she was a graduate of Kingston Township High School and attended College Misericordia.

After raising her family, she went to work as the Back Mountain correspondent at the former Wilkes-Barre Record. Later, she was a teacher's aide at Dallas Elementary School. She also sold Avon for more than 20 years.

She volunteered her time and worked with the Penns Woods Girl Scout Council, of which she was a past president; as a Red Cross Blood Drive volunteer, as co-founder and first president of the Northeastern Pennsylvania Genealogy Society, Shavertown; as a former member of the Wyoming Valley Embroiderers Guild; and as a volunteer at the Back Mountain Memorial Library Used Book Store.

She was a member of the Shavertown United Methodist Church, where she was the former education director and involved in the United Methodist Women's organizations. Recently, she was presented with the 2007 Wesley Award that recognizes the recipient's service to the church and the community.

Surviving are sons, John W., Lehman; Thomas L., Fairfield, Va.; and Kenneth D., of Manassas, Va.; daughters, Catherine A. Berkey and Michele S. Butts, both of Shavertown; five grandchildren; brother, Wesley Boyes, Rochester, N.Y.; sister, Nancy Mayer, Vernon, Pa.; numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial donations to the Shavertown United Methodist Church.

CLEMENT MACY
Was member of U.S. Merchant Marines

Clement Macy, 92 of Kingston Township, died Friday, Sept. 21, 2007, in Valley Crest Nursing Home, Plains Township.

Born in Plymouth, he was a resident of Swoyersville for over 50 years. He attended Plymouth and Larksville schools. He joined the U.S. Merchant Marines in 1937, serving on the Great Lakes for eight years. After retiring to the area, he worked as a carpenter in the local union, serving as president in the Wilkes-Barre Local for two terms during the 1960s. Afterwards, he was a self-employed contractor.

He was a member of Holy Family Parish, Luzerne, and was active in the Holy Name Society of former St. Ann's Church.

Surviving is a son, Charles, of Kingston Township.

GLORIA NEY
Was married 61 years

Gloria (Marconi) Ney, 83, of Harveys Lake, formerly of Wilkes-Barre, died Tuesday, Sept. 18, 2007, at her home.

Born in Wilkes-Barre, she was a member of St. Nicholas Church, South Washington Street, Wilkes-Barre, and also attended Our Lady of Victory Church, Harveys Lake.

Surviving are her husband of 61 years, Harold J. Ney; daughters, Judith Brokenshire, Harveys Lake, Jane Aritz, Swoyersville; and Lori Grablick, Wyoming; six grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; nieces and nephews.

Memorial donations to the St. Nicholas Church Renovation Fund, 226 S. Washington St., Wilkes-Barre, PA 18701, or to Southern Care Hospice, 851 Commerce Blvd., Dickson City, PA 18519.

DAVID FINN
Was vice president at Lion Brewery

David C. Finn, 57, of Hamilton Road, Dallas, died Thursday, Sept. 20, 2007, shortly after admission to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

Born in Washington, D.C., he was a graduate of Dallas High School and attended Marquette University and Wilkes University. In 1969, he started his career with Stegmaier Brewery and continued with the Lion Brewery, last being vice president of production and warehousing.

He was an Eagle Scout, a member of the Plymouth Historical Society, a former member of the Master Brewers Association and an avid genealogist.

Surviving are his wife, the former Marion Barnard, with whom he would have celebrated his 29th wedding anniversary today, Sept. 30; sons, David C. Jr., of Columbus, Ga., Gregory E., of Dallas; and Jeffrey P., of West Chester; brothers, Reese, of Clayton, N.C., Thomas, of Hagerstown, Md. and Stephen T., of Cape Canaveral, Fla.; sisters, Linda Poorman, of Newark, Del. and Lynn Mielke, of College Station, Texas; stepmother, Rita Finn, of Kingston; nieces and nephews.

Memorial donations to the Plymouth Historical Society.

GOLDIE HADSALL
Former Trucksville resident

Goldie Elizabeth (Belles) Hadsall, formerly of Trucksville, died Friday, Sept. 21, 2007, in the Hospice Community Care Inpatient Unit at Geisinger South Wilkes-Barre. Arrangements are entrusted to the Harold C. Snowdon Funeral Home, Shavertown.

MARVIN EVANS
Received U.S. Patent for invention

Marvin H. Evans, 82, of Lake Township, died Saturday, Sept. 22, 2007, at home.

Born in Lake Township on August 21, 1925, he was self-employed as a mechanic and carpenter and also was employed at the Ricketts Saw Mill on Red Rock Mountain. He also worked as a surveyor for Wallenpaupak Lake Estates and was a truck driver, hauling coal and concrete.

He received a U.S. Patent for inventing an adhesive tape cutter wheel and was especially proud of building a 2-engine car, which he named the Saab-Wagon. He was also one of the first residents to install solar heating and a wind generator in his home as alternative fuel sources.

Surviving are his wife of 57 years, the former Freda Green; sons Roy W. Evans, of Lake Township; Thomas M. Evans, of Tacoma, Wash.; daughters, Barbara Spriggs, of Lehman Township; and Joan Barnes, of Atlanta, Ga.; 12 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren.

Memorial donations to the National Kidney Foundation, 30 East 33rd St., NY, NY 10016.

RETA MYERS
Taught in one-room schoolhouse

Reta B. Myers, 95, of Elmcrest Drive, Dallas, died on Monday, Sept. 24, 2007, at her home.

Born in Berwick, she was a graduate of Nescopeck High School and Bloomsburg College and began her teaching career in a one-room schoolhouse.

She was a member of Dr. Edwards Church, Edwardsville.

Surviving are a son, Thomas E., Dallas; a daughter, Sally Flynn, Wilkes-Barre; one granddaughter.

Memorial donations to Dr. Edwards Church.

Fall Visitation Day planned at Semina

Students in pre-kindergarten through grade 11 and their families who are interested in learning more about Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School are invited to attend the fall Visitation Day, to be held on Columbus Day, Monday, Oct. 8, at both the Lower School campus in Forty Fort and the Upper School campus in Kingston.

At Lower School, Visitation Day will begin at 8:30 a.m. and end at 2:30 p.m.

Visiting students are invited to experience a typical day at Lower School by shadowing a student in his/her current grade level and joining with other students for lunch.

Parent tours of Lower School will be available. Parents also may schedule a screening test for early admission consideration for the 2008-09 school year on Visitation Day.

Reservations at Lower School are requested by Friday, Oct. 5. Please call Heidi Sims, Associate Director of Lower School

Admission, at 718-6610 for more information and reservations.

At Upper School, the Visitation Day program will begin at 8:30 a.m. at the Stettler Learning Resources Center, North Sprague Avenue, Kingston.

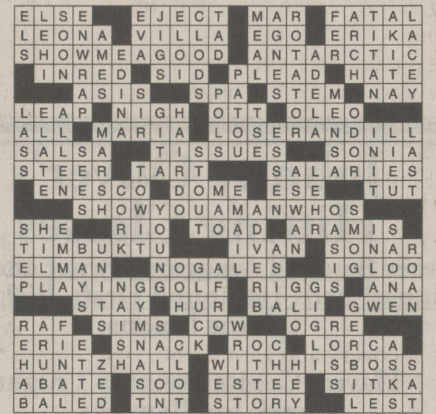

Visiting students will attend classes and eat lunch with current students. Parents may tour the campus and attend presentations until 11 a.m.

Presentations will cover the admission process and financial aid, college guidance, academics, extracurricular programs, athletics, boarding life and performing arts. Visitation Day activities will end at 2:45 p.m. Admission interviews will be given upon request.

All those interested in attending Sem's Upper School Fall Visitation Day are asked to respond by Monday, Oct. 1. For more information or to sign up for the event, call the Upper School Admission Office at 270-2160.

PUZZLE ANSWERS

Puzzles, Page 2

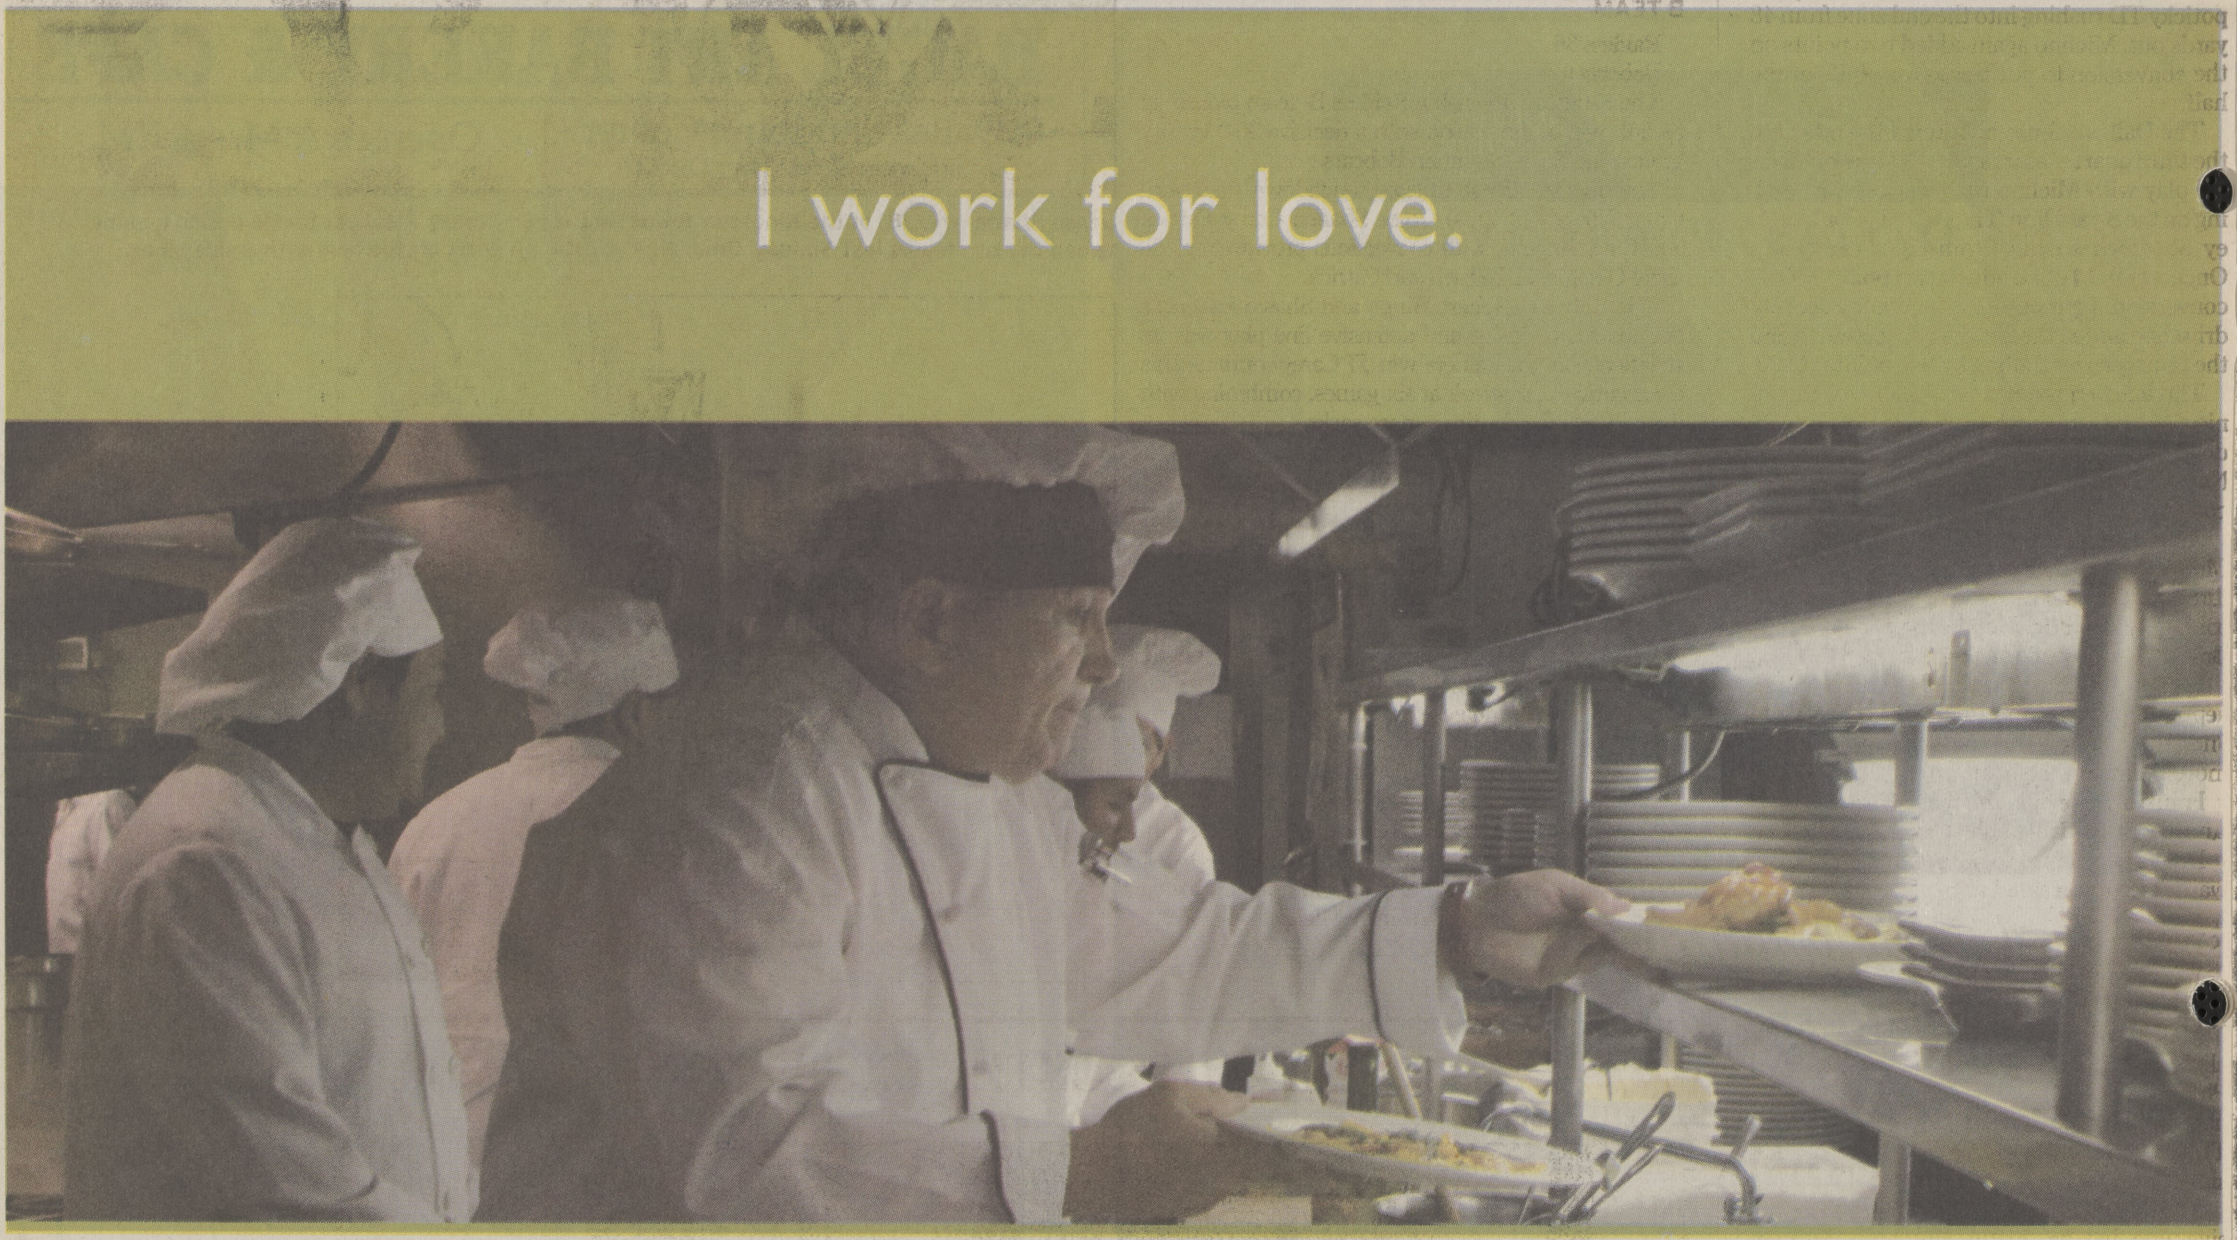

Go Figure!
answers

7	-	4	x	5	15
+		x		x
8	+	4	÷	2	6
÷		-		+
3	x	1	x	6	18
5		15		16

King Crossword
Answers

Solution time: 27 mins.

FAR	WANE	ELKS
IDO	AVON	QUIP
ROCK	FORD	UNTO
KNEW	FIGHT
MOWER	RAIN
ALEE	CONTESTS
AIL	FACTS	HOP
MOLLUSKS	PAIR
ASHY	DIMLY
PROMS	SUER
LIVE	PUNK	ROCK
OLAN	ASIA	COE
WELT	REPS	KION

I work for love.

Monster works for me.

Find the job that's right for you on timesleader.monster.com — whenever you're ready. Search jobs 24/7/365. Look for the right job match whenever and wherever you want. Go to timesleader.monster.com today. And let Monster work for you.

timesleader.monster.com

More jobs. More places. More easily.