

Jonathan Wilson and his cousins Adam, Ryan and Megan Borton, Dallas, wait for the Misericordia University Homecoming Parade to come through Dallas.

Oscar Parade

Misericordia Homecoming features fun movies, stars

The "Roll out the Red Carpet" theme of Misericordia University's Homecoming Parade last Saturday featured a fun look at hit movies and Oscar-award winning actors, actresses and movies. There were also plenty of prizes and surprises for spectators along the parade route.

The Homecoming Parade was part of "University Year" and wound its way through the streets of Dallas Borough and Dallas Township where families and children lined the parade route and joined in the fun.

The parade was just one of a slate of homecoming events that included an open house for prospective students and their parents as well as the field hockey, volleyball and men's and women's soccer teams competing in home matches.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

The Misericordia University Commuter Council float gets ready for parade action before the homecoming procession through Dallas.

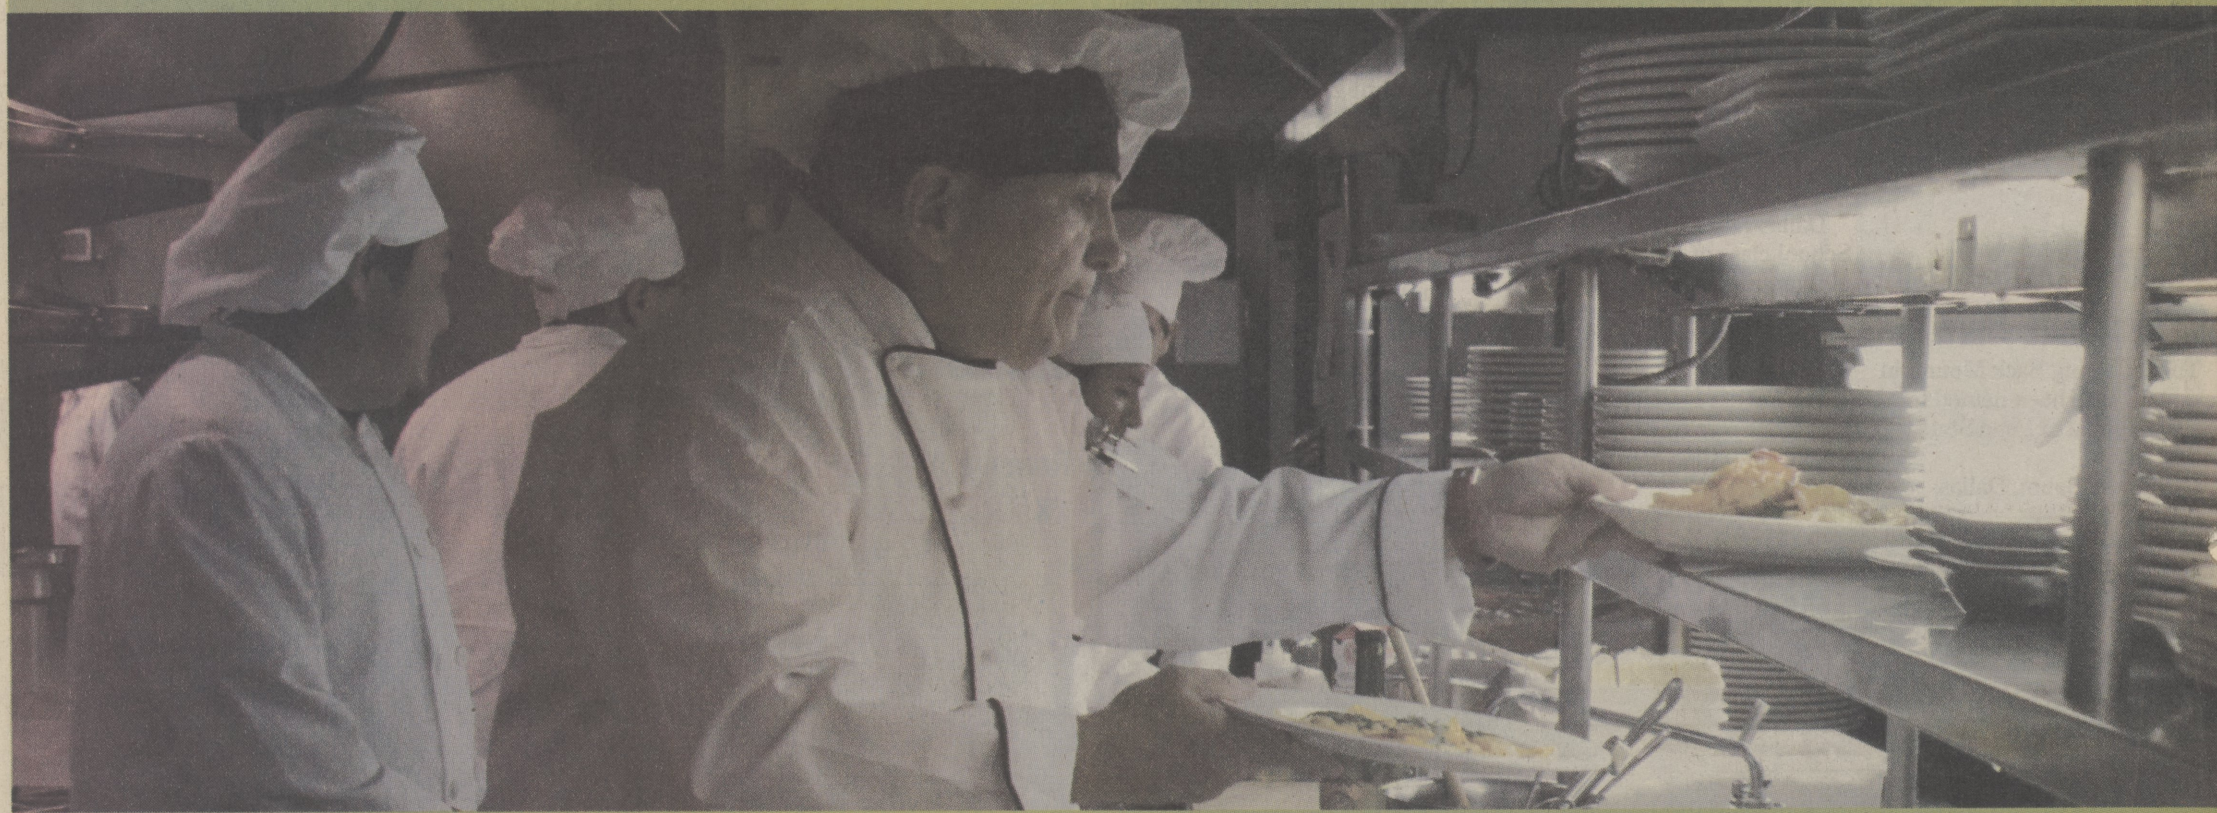

The Misericordia University cheerleaders have their picture taken before the parade starts.

Residents at the Meadows Center, including Terri Phillips, enjoyed the Misericordia University parade that went by their residence.

I work for love.

Monster works for me.

Find the job that's right for you on timesleader.monster.com — whenever you're ready. Search jobs 24/7/365. Look for the right job match whenever and wherever you want. Go to timesleader.monster.com today. And let Monster work for you.

timesleader.monster.com

More jobs. More places. More easily.