HUMAN SERVICES

MISERICORDIA UNIVERSITY

ALTERNATIVE LEARNING PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Misericordia University is currently accepting applications for a full-time, 10-month Alternative Learning Program Coordinator. A Master's degree in education or human services, preferable, and four years related experience with young adults and adults with disabilities. Knowledge of ADA and legislation for students with learning disabilities is preferred. Working knowledge of the needs of students with various disabilities, including mobility, visual, and hearing impairments and learning disabilities is also preferred. The qualified candidate for this position will provide an equal opportunity learning environment to students and prospective students with disabilities, assess students experiencing learning disability/difficulties and recommend, develop, and deliver services to enable them to acquire strategies to overcome their barriers to learning.
