The Philadelphia Handbell Ensemble will perform at 7 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 28, at the Shavertown United Methodist Church, 163 N Pioneer Ave.

Handbell choir performs in Shavertown

The Philadelphia Handbell Ensemble will transform nearly 300 pounds of bronze into a visually and musically exciting performance at 7 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 28, at the Shavertown United Methodist Church, 163 N Pioneer Ave. Praised for its brilliant technique and refined musicianship, PHE will present a wide array of musical styles and moods with its repertoire of original compositions, arrangements and classical transcriptions. Moving beyond the traditional handbell sound by combining various instruments and using advanced ringing techniques, PHE has redefined the character of what is still considered a single instrument. This "rare find among handbell ensembles," according to Abington Symphony Orchestra conductor John Sall, is conducted by internationally known handbell clinician Kermit D. Junkert. Tickets are $8 for adults and $4 for children and are available by calling 675-3616 or at the door. Additional information on the concert is available at www.shavertownumc.com.
