PEOPLE BRIEFS

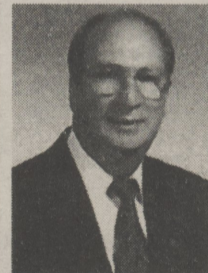

Metz & Associates honored by magazine

Metz & Associates, Ltd., based in Dallas, was named number 24 among Food Management Magazine's (FM) Top 50 Food Contract Management Companies in the country. This list, which has been compiled annually since 1998, appears in the September 2007 issue of Food Management. The Top 50 are chosen through a detailed study of significant regional and national companies that operate in non-commercial food service areas, primarily in school districts, colleges, healthcare and business & industry. The ranking is based on sales volume, number of contracts, major segments sold and new concepts and programs. Metz & Associates introduced a new dining concept last year, InterMetzo Cafe, an upscale coffee/grab and go.

John P. Corcoran, a man of professional and dedicated experience for Coroner of Luzerne County.

For 32 years, John Corcoran has served as a licensed funeral director dedicated to attending to the needs, concerns, emotions of bereaved family members. As the Coroner of Luzerne County, John Corcoran will demonstrate leadership skills and financial soundness within the Coroner's Office and promote those necessary policies which are affordable to the people of Luzerne County.

John P. Corcoran

John Corcoran will be highly visible within Luzerne County and those social agencies combating drug and alcohol abuse, particularly among our youth. Most of all, Corcoran, as the Coroner of Luzerne County, will be professionally accountable, compassionately involved and cooperative within the District Attorney's office, law enforcement officials, and related agencies throughout Luzerne County.

It takes more than a given number of years of experience to be an effective Coroner - it takes real professionalism, a dedication to family needs, a relentless concern for the victims of crime and the proven ability to lead and to financially manage.

Paid for by the Committee to Elect John P. Corcoran Coroner
