

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Signs like these tell the story of the long-time rivalry between the Dallas and Lake-Lehman football teams.

Lake-Lehman students Jennie Feher and Tiffany Moore cheer on the ground while their cheermates are up in the air.

60 years of tradition

The Old Shoe trophy, a bronzed size-11 cleat that has been shuffled between Dallas and Lake-Lehman High Schools for the past 60 years, will remain in the trophy case at Dallas after the Mountaineers shut out the Black Knights, 14-0, in this year's Old Shoe football game.

Dallas won its fifth consecutive game to finish with an 8-2 record during the regular season, earning the Mountaineers a playoff berth against Berwick in the District 2 Class 3A semi-final. Lake-Lehman's season ended at 2-9.

Black Knight Cody Lamoreaux catches up with Pat Murray but not in time to stop the second touchdown of the game for Dallas.

Members of the Dallas Senior High School football team celebrate their victory in last weekend's Old Shoe Game against Lake-Lehman. From left, are Andrew Judge, Anthony Rubbico, Pat Murray, Mike Adams and Joe Hayes.

Dallas head coach Ted Jackson receives the "Old Shoe" trophy from Dallas Rotary President Lisa Pretko as Mountaineers Anthony Rubbico, Pat Murray and Joe Hayes look on.

Juniors Kelsey Makara and Cara Wengen cheer for Lake-Lehman.

Cody Lamoreaux of Lake-Lehman is stopped by Mountaineers Anthony Rubbico and Damon Marth

In the twilight, Michelle Berley and other members of the Dallas cheerleading squad rally students in anticipation of the Old Shoe game.

Joe Collini introduces captains of the Dallas football team to the crowd during a bonfire rally in anticipation of the Old Shoe game.

SENIOR GRIDDERS IN LAST OLD SHOE GAME

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Senior members of the Dallas and Lake-Lehman football teams who competed against each other in the 60th annual Old Shoe Game last weekend are, from left, first row, Matthew Sikora, Lake-Lehman; Stephen Pearson, Anthony Rubbico and Pat Murray, all from Dallas. Second row, Ken Pollock, Remington Boyd, Daniel McHugh, all of Lake-Lehman; Fred Mihal and Joseph Hayes, both of Dallas. Members of the teams were treated to a breakfast before game day at the Huntsville Golf Club hosted by the Lake-Lehman School District and Mr. Tom Rokita, Lake-Lehman athletic director.

It Shows

Open the door to more opportunities and more leadership. Show your boss, your future employer, or your competition that you know how to achieve, innovate, and succeed.

Penn State for your career—it shows.

Information Session
Hayfield House, Room 105
5:00-7:00p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 14

Courses, degrees, and professional development for working adults

PENN STATE
1855
Wilkes-Barre

www.wb.psu.edu
570-675-9238