COPY EDITOR NIGHT DESK

The Times Leader a daily newspaper in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., is seeking a copy editor to join its night desk.

In addition to having first-rate style, grammar and spelling skills, the successful applicant should be adept at writing compelling headlines that draw readers into our stories and be able to produce high-quality work on deadline. He or she should read copy from the reader's point of view and will be expected to voice concerns about stories when necessary. The ability to collaborate with colleagues on the desk and in other departments is essential.

The copy desk is responsible for editing stories for the news, business and sports sections. Pager design experience is preferred, but not required. The job requires working nights, weekends and some holidays.

We're looking for someone with at least two years experience at a daily newspaper, but reporters looking to make the jump into editing or recent college graduates with copy editing internships are encouraged to apply.

We offer a competitive salary and benefits package. For immediate consideration, please send a resume, cover letter and five examples of your best work to:

Chris Beynon, Human Resources Director
15 N. Main Street Wilkes-Barre, PA 18711
or email cbeynon@timesleader.com

We are an equal opportunity employer committed to diversity in the workplace.
