

THE DALLAS POST Sports

Erin Barlow, Jimmy Barlow's mother, and Wanda Ryniec, mother of Collin Ryniec, show their spirit by cheering on their sons' team.

In a classic rivalry foretelling Old Shoe games of the future, the Dallas Junior Mounts and the Kingston Township Raiders 'B' teams line up on the field before last Sunday's Super Bowl matchup between the two Back Mountain teams.

Matt Harrison of the Dallas Junior Mounts 'C' team is brought down by a Kingston Township Raider.

These guys are all Super!

The Dallas Junior Mounts entered three teams in last week's youth football Super Bowl game with its B team emerging victorious over the Kingston Township Raiders.

The Raiders C team won the championship while the Swoyersville Sailors defeated the Junior Mounts for the A team championship.

Dallas Post photographer

Charlotte Bartizek caught lots of action - both on and off the field - during the B and C games last Sunday at Wilkes-Barre Memorial Stadium.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

The Dallas Junior Mounts 'B' team huddles in the stadium before its Super Bowl matchup against the Kingston Township Raiders.

Jim Gattuso challenges his team, the Kingston Raiders 'C' team, as the second half of the game during the youth football Super Bowl begins last Sunday at Wilkes-Barre Memorial Stadium.

Kingston Township Raiders Ryan Martin, Jason Anderson and Ray Anthony are exhausted after the first half of their game against the Dallas Jr. Mounts.