

Sports

SPORTS BRIEFS

Bobcats organization to met

The Back Mountain Bobcats Youth Football and Cheerleading organization will hold a meeting at 7 p.m. today, Dec. 2, at the American Legion in Dallas. Nominations for board members for the 2008-2009 season will be held at this time.

For further information, contact Dan Anderson at 696-2305.

Rock Rec Center schedules tryouts

The Rock Recreation Center will hold tryouts for its travel AAU basketball program, Rock Solid Basketball, from 4:30 to 7 p.m. today, Dec. 2.

The tryout is open to boys 12 years of age or younger and in the sixth grade. The AAU basketball season runs March 17 through June 15, 2008.

Cost for the tryout is $10 per player. Registration begins at 4:30 p.m. with the try-out beginning promptly at 5 p.m.

For more information, contact Doug Miller at 696-2769.

Indoor soccer league seeks players and teams

The Back Mountain Youth Soccer Winter Indoor Soccer/Futsal League is seeking teams and individual players for its league. The season runs on weekends from January 4 - March 9, 2008. All games are played at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre gym with the new low-bounce FUTSAL ball.

There will be intramural and competitive divisions from U6 through U18 and all area players are welcome. For more information or to sign up, log on to www.bmysa.com. T-shirts and referee fees are included with registration. Registration deadline is December 14.

DYB sixth graders open season with win

The DYB boys sixth grade basketball tournament team opened its season with a 41-22 win over Valley West Red in the Annual Sixth Grade Sunday Lehman Basketball League.

Chad DeBona scored nine points while Chris Behm and Kyle Razawich added eight points each. Aaron Napkora added six points and led the team in rebounds while Justin Brojakowski had four points.

Ryan Martin leads Quad Three to victory

Ryan Martin scored a game-high 16 points while Daniel Mingey and Jimmy Barlow added six points each to lead Quad Three Group to a 32-12 win over Metlife Securities in the opening game of the Third/Fourth grade boys basketball season.

Jacob Stritzinger and Joey Bevevino added two points each for Quad. Kyle Archer led Metlife Securities with eight points while Tim Elston and Anthony Brominski had two each. Brendan Balara pulled down several key rebounds.

Spencer Bowanko scored 14 points to lead Fieldhouse Sporting Goods to a 28-19 win over Eastern Penn Supply Co. Lee Eckert controlled the rebounding and Kyle Piscorik played fine defense for Fieldhouse.

Ray Anthony Ostroski led Eastern Penn with 10 points and Chad Phillips added seven. Peter Capitano and Nick Mathers played excellent defense.

Eric Fritzges waits for the annual Dallas alumni/varsity soccer game to begin.

Alum return for soccer win

The alumni may have taken the game a little more seriously than the varsity soccer players did. In any event, the alumni fared better than the varsity, capturing an 8-3 victory in the Annual Dallas Alumni/Varsity Soccer game.

According to Tom Youells, president of the Dallas Soccer Booster Club, the game has been held for about five or six years and attracted approximately 10 alumni soccer players this year.

Dallas High School alumni John Fagan blocks a goal attempt by Alex Slocum.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Dallas High School alumni Paul Douglas wonders if he's ready for a header before an alumni game with the Dallas varsity team.

Ryan Love, left, Paul Douglas, center, and Paul Shiber, Dallas soccer players from 2002 and 2003, recall how they won the district championship the years they played together for the Mountaineers.

DALLAS HIGH SCHOOL CROSS COUNTRY TEAM

Members of the Dallas High School cross-country team are, from left, A.J. Thomas, Meghan Pietraccini, Amanda Thompson, Mariel Adams, Rachel Buckman, Kasia Szulborski, Katie Kravitz and Chris Dailey. Second row, Jake Reinert, Mitch Cohen, Hannah Bestwick, Ellen Arnaud, Lindsay Ellis, Erin Delaney, Ally Evans and Jimmy Brown. Third row, Frank Ferlanda, Drew Clouse, Michael Calkins, Kyle Piazza, Chris Box, Griffin Adams and Eric Danko.

YOUNG GIRL BAGS DEER

Fourteen-year-old Cathryn Noel Warner, of Lehman Avenue, Dallas, had a great first day of deer season while hunting in Bradford County. With one shot at 1:30 in the afternoon, Cathryn brought down a deer. She was hunting with her grandfather, Dennis F. Madeira, of Dallas.