

Sports

Coach Joe Bowanko helps motivate his team at half time. Kyle Piscorik and teammates respond.

Timmy Elston and Jason Anderson tangle for the ball in DYB action.

Dallas Youth Basketball third and fourth graders battle for the ball at Wycallis Elementary School.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Gattuso's 12 points leads Group past Metlife

Results of last week's games played in the third and fourth grade division of the Dallas Youth Basketball League are as follows:

Gattuso Group 29
Metlife Securities 14
 Tanner Gattuso scored 12 points and Jason Anderson added eight to lead Gattuso Group Accountants & Consultants to a 29-14 win over Metlife Securities. David Simpson added seven points and Dalton Gattuso chipped in two to keep Gattuso Group in first place.
 Kyle Archer led Metlife with eight points, while Anthony Brominski added three points and Cory Metz scored two. Tim Elston added one point while Mitchell Winters keyed the defense.
Quad Three 26
Fieldhouse Sporting 19
 Daniel Mingey scored 10 points and controlled the offense while Joey Bevevino added eight points as Quad Three rebounded with a 26-19 win over Fieldhouse Sporting Goods. Jimmy Barlow and Ryan Martin added four points apiece for Quad while Frank Weaver led a strong defense. Spencer Bowanko led the Fieldhouse with 13 points while Lee Eckert added four and Kyle Piscorik two. John Zuccaro played well defensively.

Eastern Penn 31
Walgreen 14
 Chad Phillips scored 16 points and Ray Anthony Ostroski added 10 as Eastern Penn Supply Co. topped Walgreen Drug Stores, 31-14. Tyler Cavanaugh, Jack Tomko and Peter Capitano led a strong defensive effort.
 Steven Darling was the leading scorer for Walgreens while Michael Farrell led the rebounding. Daniel Sweeny keyed the defense and Justin Phillips led in assists.
McCarthy Tire 24
Burger King 18
 Andrew Matcho scored eight points and Adam Niznik added seven as McCarthy Tire rallied for a 24-18 win over Burger King. Paul Zabloutney and Jacob Serafin added two points each while Anthony DeLuca sparked the defense.
 Aaron Yurko led BurgerKing with 10 points while Mitch Kelly added six. Joseph Latzko and Kyle Besecker played excellent defense.

ABOVE: Joe Bevevino hangs onto the ball in a tumble with Lee Eckert and Spencer Bowanko.

LEFT: Kyle Moskaluk takes a shot at the basket.