FEATURES/ ENTERTAINMENT WRITER /MUSIC CRITIC

The Times Leader, a privately owned daily in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., has an immediate full-time opening for a features writer able to cover, skillfully and creatively, a full range of arts, entertainment, leisure and lifestyle topics. Preference will be given to candidates with experience and top-notch skills in covering the home-and-garden beat as well as anything related to music, from local bands and troupes representing a spectrum of tastes and styles to national acts and issues. We seek a lively and self-motivated wordsmith who can turn a creative phrase while keeping accuracy and integrity paramount. We not only want you to cover stories but find them, then persuade people to share them. The ideal candidate also will be able to step out of realm on occasion to cover general features, such as family life, food or travel, or features as daily or breaking news on short notice. A keen eye for style (both in language and in life) and a finger on the pulse of today's society are crucial. We're looking for someone who knows today's and tomorrow's talkers from yesterday's news but also knows where the latter might fit into the scheme on any given day.

Hours are generally daytime Monday through Friday with occasional and/or sporadic nights and weekends. Flexibility is a must. Three to five years' experience preferred, in addition to a bachelor's degree.
