

Josh Lefkowitz, of Wyoming Seminary, is surrounded by Dallas defenders Paul Brace, left, and Justin Ellis.

Rice leads young Mounts

The Dallas seventh and eighth grade boys basketball team got nine points from Kohner Rice and eight points from Jordan Stevens as it defeated the Blue Knights of Wyoming Seminary, 38-14. Adding to the winning cause were Justin Ellis and Bobby Saba who dropped in six points each.

Josh Lefkowitz was high scorer for Seminary with nine points.

Tim Kennedy, of Dallas, goes up against Wyoming Seminary players Mark Arewsmeter, Ryder Linde and Stephen Bell for a rebound.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Archer explodes for 24 points to lead Metlife Securities

THIRD & FOURTH GRADE

Metlife Securities 34

Burger King 17

Kyle Archer scored 24 points and Cory Metz added seven as Metlife Securities defeated Burger King, 34-17, in the third and fourth grade division of the Dallas Youth Basketball League. Derek Peters added three points and Mitchell Winters keyed the defense for Metlife.

Aaron Yurko led Burger King with 11 points while Chandler Caruso added six. Ricky Morgan and Zach Charlton played fine defense.

Quad Three Group 29

McCarthy Tire 26

Ryan Martin scored 15 points and Daniel Mingey added eight to lead Quad Three Group to a 29-26 win over McCarthy Tire. Jimmy Barlow added four points and Frank Weaver had two.

Adam Niznik led McCarthy Tire with 11 points while Andrew Matcho added eight. Nico DeLuca scored six and Anthony DeLuca played fine defense.

Fieldhouse 27

Walgreens 10

Kyle Piscorik scored 11 points and Lee Eckert added four as Fieldhouse Sporting Goods topped Walgreens, 27-10. Christian Wargo led the rebounding for the Fieldhouse.

Connor Macarty led Walgreens with six, Michael Farrell led the rebounding and Justin Phillips the defense.

Eastern Penn 27

Gattuso Group 25

Ray Ostroski scored 16 points and Chad Phillips added nine and led the rebounding as Eastern Penn Supply Co. handed Gattuso Group Accountants & Consultants its first loss by a score of 27-25. Peter Capitano and Justin Novitski played excellent defense for Eastern Penn.

The Gattuso Group was led offensively by Tanner Gattuso, Jason Anderson and David Simpson. Dalton Gattuso and Connor Motley led the defense.

FIFTH & SIXTH GRADE

Bishop Photo 48

CDI 44

Bishop Photo flashed by CDI, 48-44. Kyle Razawich continued his excellent play by throwing in 24 points for the photo men. Brian Drouse played tough on the board, tossing back 12.

CDI was led by the sharp shooting of Stephen Wempa with 19 points. Michael Boland played very well, adding 15. Jory Bredzinski continues to dominate inside, pulling down 10 rebounds and scoring eight points.

Medico Industries 36

CDI 31

Medico Industries continued to roll, nipping CDI, 36-31. Chad Debona and Mariano Medico tossed in 14 points apiece. Vinny Parente and Don Michelson led the defense.

CDI was led by Michael Boland with 14 and Stephen Wempa with 13.

Medico Industries 50

DJ Charlie Hayes 32

Medico Industries rolled to victory over the DJ Charlie Hayes, 50-32. Aaron Napkora stole the show, hauling down 15 rebounds and scoring 20 points. Jake Archer played great defense and Pat Maley assisted the offense with some key picks and scored a bucket.

Bishop Photo 54

DJ Charlie Hayes 42

Bishop Photo rolled to victory over the DJ Charlie Hayes, 54-42. Kyle Razawich dominated the game, scoring 34 points. Nick Muldoon and Drew Harding controlled the boards.

Brace's Orchard 61

PNC Bank 19

Brace's Orchard overpowered the bankers from PNC, 61-19. Brandon Ehret continued to energize the apple men, scoring 19 points and hauling down 14 rebounds. Chase Makowski tossed in 15. Dominic Deluca navigated the offense and led the team in steals. Matt Saba and Nigel Stearns continued to play well, adding eight apiece.

Banas Byron and Kim 47

CVS 44

Banas Byron and Kim nipped the pharmacy boys of CVS, 47-44. Brian Banas was too tough to stop, scoring 18 points for the doctors. Omar Nijmeh played tough, adding eight. Jonathan Wilson scored seven, including two clutch free throws to seal the victory.

CVS was led by the aggressive play of Blake Williams, scoring 15. Chris Behm and Justin Brojakowski each added 14. Jonathan Sabatini tossed in four key points for the pharmacy.

Banas Byron and Kim 48

PNC Bank 46

Banas Byron and Kim topped PNC Bank in double overtime, 48-46. Brian Banas put a smile on the doctors' faces, scoring a game-high 22 points while Frank Hullahen played well, adding six. Jonathan Wilson led the defense and tossed in 10.

PNC was led by Nigel Stearns' 18 points. Carl Gross dominated the boards, pulling down 12 rebounds and tossing back 14 points. Matt Saba racked up 10 steals for the defense and added seven points for the bankers.

CDI 52

Banas Byron and Kim 44

CDI rolled to a 52-44 victory over Banas Byron and Kim. Stephen Wempa led CDI with 20 points and Brendan Baloh added 12 points. David Pomfret played well, scoring a bucket and hauling down five rebounds.

Brian Banas was high scorer for the doctors with 24 points. Jonathan Wilson played well and dropped in 10.

PNC Bank 50

CVS 46

PNC Bank nipped CVS, 50-46. Matt Saba overcame an aggressive defense, scoring 25 for the bankers. Carl Gross continued to improve, adding 15 points and 12 rebounds. Aleskey Gittleson scored six for the bankers. Blake Williams and Justin Brojakowski played great, scoring 18 each. Chris Behm tossed in eight. Russ Newell played tough, blocking five shots and grabbing 11 rebounds.

SIXTH GRADE TRAVEL TEAM

Aaron Napkora and Kyle Razawich scored 10 points each while Chad DeBona added five as the Dallas Youth Basketball Sixth Grade Boys Tournament Team defeated Valley West Maroon, 35-26, in the Sunday Lehman League.

Justin Brojakowski and Blake Williams added four points each for Dallas which won its third straight game in the league.

DYB will participate in the annual Newport Tournament in February.

SEVEN & EIGHTH GRADE

Dr. John Kish 49

Gallis Insurance 45

Justin Ellis hit four three-pointers on his way to led Dr. John Kish to a close 49-45 win over Gallis Insurance. Ellis finished with 14 points and Rudy Georgetti added eight points for the doctors.

Bobby Saba continued his hot play, scoring 23 points while Michael Gallis finished with five points for Gallis Insurance.

Dallas Lions 45

Cohen Chiropractic 41

Dallas Lions defeated Cohen Chiropractic, 45-41. Eric Zawatski led the way with 18 points and strong post play. Shane Dunn added 20 points while Josh Shilanski led both teams in assists.

Jason Simonovich led Cohen with 19 points while David Miller added 11 points.

M&T Bank 66

Gordon and Long 51

Paul Brace continued his league-wide dominance, scoring 34 points to led M&T Bank to a 66-51 win over Gordon and Long Real Estate. Kohnor Rice added 21 points and Chris Reimard added four.

Garrett Artsma led the realtors with 17 points while George Parkhurst added nine points.

Bishop Photo 58

Eyecare Specialists 47

Bishop Photo used a balanced scoring attack to defeat Eyecare Specialists, 58-47. Scoring for Bishop Photo were Jordan Stephens with 22 and Aaron Weir with 11. Hayden Jenkins and Jordan Dolman each had eight while Darren Lupole netted five points for the victors. Eyecare Specialists was led by the outstanding shooting of FJ Constantino with 19 points. Austin Smith added five points while Chris Ostrum added four.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Bandits set registration

Back Mountain Bandits Youth Lacrosse organization will hold registration for the 2008 spring season from 5:30 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Jan. 23, and Thursday, Jan. 24, and from 1 to 4 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 10, at the Camp Orchard Hill Recreation Center.

For more information, log on to www.bmyl.org or call John at 283-1008.

DYB Skills Competition set

The annual DYB Third/Fourth Grade Skills Competitions will be held the last week in January at Dallas Elementary. The fourth grade boys will hold their skills competition on Monday, Jan. 28, while the third grade boys event will take place on Wed. Jan. 30.

Start time each night is 5:30 pm.

The top three in free throws and lay-ups in each grade will receive trophies.

BEGINNER'S LUCK FOR DANTE DEANGELO

It was certainly a case of beginner's luck for 12-year-old Dante DeAngelo, of Dallas who shot a doe on November 30, 2007 with one shot and a 4-point buck on December 1, 2007 with one shot. Dante was hunting with his father, Bill, and his brother, Billy.