

Fly away

"Renshaw" and "Miss Charles" visited the Lehman-Jackson Elementary School recently to help students celebrate the school's Reading is Fundamental Program. Sponsored by the school's Parent Teacher Association, the program featured naturalists from the Carbon County Environmental Education Center as well as "Renshaw," a Bald Eagle, and "Miss Charles," a Golden Eagle who worked together to present "Fly Away with a Good Book!"

Two assemblies were held where students received free books, many of which were about animals and endangered species. Parents also read in classrooms throughout the school day.

Chris McCauley, of Dallas, has almost too many eggs for his hands to hold after an egg hunt at the Free Evangelical Church.

Children make a run for eggs at the Easter Egg Hunt sponsored by the Franklin Township Volunteer Fire Company.

Egg hunting

The Franklin Township Volunteer Fire Company property on Orange Road was the sight of an Easter Egg Hunt Sunday afternoon where children were divided by age and allowed to search for eggs to win prizes. The hunt was conducted within the confines of the ballfield on the company's property.

Easter eggstravanza

It wasn't just an Easter Egg Hunt – but an Easter Egg Hunt Eggstravanza – at the Fellowship Free Evangelical Church on Hildebrandt Road in Dallas last Saturday. In addition to the traditional egg hunt, children were also treated to a puppet show, crafts, games, a basket raffle and snacks.

After collecting eggs, Anna Belle Van Hemert and the rest of the children participated in an egg toss.

D. J. Rittenhouse couldn't be more happy about collecting so many eggs.
