Work of award-winning artist on display at bank

The Dallas Branch of Citizens Bank is currently displaying art work by prize-winning artist Nina Santarelli, of Dallas.

Santarelli is a high school senior at Wyoming Seminary. She has studied art privately with Sue Hand for 13 years and this September will begin to pursue her degree in art history at Tufts University in Boston, MA.

Having won nearly 100 awards for her art, Santarelli draws and paints in all fine art media, including watercolor, oil, acrylic, graphite, ink, charcoal, pastel, colored pencil, mixed media and silverpoint.

She is a graduate of the Pennsylvania Governor School of Teaching and has served as a teaching assistant at Sue Hand's Imagery art classes for the past two years.

An ambassador for admissions at Wyoming Seminary's Alumni and Development Office, Santarelli is a member of the Executive Board for Community Service, Features Editor of The Opinator (school newspaper), a peer tutor, and school nominee for the Times Leader's Best and Brightest Award for Community Service.

The exhibit of her art work may be viewed in the lobby of the Citizens Bank, Main Street, Dallas, through April 3 during regular banking hours.
