SCHOOL BRIEFS

Sem students earn research awards

Three Back Mountain residents, all members of the Wyoming Seminary Science Research Group, recently earned awards for research projects at both regional and state competitions. The students presented oral reports and posters of their research to panels of judges and other students.

Senior Dominick Trombetta, of Shavertown, received an Excellence Award, First Award and Perfect Score in biochemistry at the Pennsylvania Junior Academy of Science (PJAS), Northeast Regional Meeting, at King's College. He also received a scholarship to the University of Scranton.

Senior Ilya Volodarsky, of Shavertown, received an Excellence Award and a First Award. Senior Mona Lotfiopour, of Truckville, received a First Award.

Spring concert slated for Seminary

The Wyoming Seminary Music Department will present its annual spring concert featuring the music of American composers at 8 p.m. on Friday, April 11, in the Great Hall of Wyoming Seminary, 228 Wyoming Ave., just north of Kingston Corners. The Choral and Madrigal Singers will perform music by Thompson, Larsen, Hays and Zaninelli and the Orchestra will feature pieces by Copland and Bernstein.

This concert is free and open to the public. For more information, call 270-2190.

Art and Science Show at I'm Big Now

The 12th Annual Art and Science Show will be held from 6 to 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 24, at I'm Big Now Learning Center, North Memorial Highway, Dallas.

This year's theme includes Spring Time on the Farm and Our Bodies. Student-created art and science projects will be on display and the young artists and scientists will be on hand to discuss their works of art.

Admission is free and everyone attending will be entered in to a raffle drawing for a free week of summer camp.

For additional information, call 675-1220.

Seminary Players present comedy

The Wyoming Seminary Players will present one of William Shakespeare's earliest comedies, "The Comedy of Errors," at 8 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, April 25 and 26, in the Buckingham Performing Arts Center, North Sprague Avenue, Kingston. Two sets of identical twins bring about confusion, frustration and laughter as they carry out their business in the Turkish city of Ephesus.

Tickets are $3 in advance and $4 at the door and the production is open to the public. For more information, call 270-2190.

Sem Jazz Band schedules program

The Wyoming Seminary Jazz Band will present a program of big band music at 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 27, at Wyoming Seminary Lower School's Amato Auditorium, 1560 Wyoming Ave., Forty Fort. The 18-member band, led by Sem's Lower School music teacher Robert Lugiano, will perform a variety of jazz standards and big band favorites.

The program will feature student soloists and jazz combos and is free and open to the public. For more information, call 270-2190.
