

RACEMUS HONORED AS MVP OF LEGION TEAM

DYB FIFTH GRADE GIRLS CAPTURE TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Dallas Youth Basketball League fifth grade girls team completed a successful post-season with a 13-0 record. The team, coached by Mary Saba and Rich Szatkowski, captured first place in the Crestwood Tournament, Newport Township Tournament and the Catholic Youth Center Commissioners Tournaments. Members of the team are, from left, first row, Abbie Bendick, Amy Bolton, Kylee Saba, Talia Szatkowski, Lindsey Jacobs and Sadie Trudgen. Gabbie Volpetti is shown in the back row.

Third Annual Lt. Michael Cleary Golf Tournament set for May 12

The Third Annual 1st Lt. Michael J. Cleary Memorial Fund Golf Tournament will be held on Monday, May 12, at the Wyoming Valley Country Club.

Proceeds from the tournament benefit the families of fallen soldiers, wounded veterans and veteran programs by providing the financial assistance they need to continue their healing and recovery. Contributions also support local institutions by providing assistance for educational opportunities and fund programs for children with special needs.

Currently, the foundation is working closely with Luzerne County Community College and local agencies to help create awareness and develop programs to provide services for soldiers and families who are affected by Post Traumatic Stress Disorder.

A completed registration form and donation of $125 per golfer must be received no later than May 1. Included in the donation are 18 holes of golf and cart, gift bag, t-shirt, ball cap, boxed lunch, cocktails and dinner. Prizes for first, second and third place in each flight will also be awarded.

Registration starts promptly at 11a.m. and, at 11:45a.m., the $2,500 putting contest and $100,000 par 3 shoot out begin. Every "ACE" on hole #13 will net the lucky golfer a $15,000 cash award! A 12:15 p.m. shotgun start for captain and crew begins the competition with cocktails, dinner and auction following the tournament. Team and individual prizes will be awarded at the dinner. For those not golfing, but wishing to attend the dinner with cocktails and auction, a donation of $50 with reservation is required.

Not a golfer? You can still contribute by donating an item or gift certificate to be auctioned off at the dinner or sponsor a hole or tee.

For more information, golfer registration, sponsorship opportunities or auction items, please contact Chuck Garnet at 760-0521 or Allan Roberts at 362-2802. Forms may also be picked up at the following locations: The Ranch Wagon restaurant, 255 Memorial Hwy. (Rt. 309 North), Shavertown; or Nick of Time Printing, 620 Market St., Kingston.

Women in Sports Society seeks nominations for two awards

The Women in Sports Society of Wyoming Valley (WISSWV) is seeking nominations for two awards: High School Sports-woman of the Year and Sports-woman for Life Award.

Coaches, athletic directors, teammates and fans are invited to submit nominations by letter or e-mail describing the accomplishments of the nominee to WISSWV postmarked no later than April 25, 2008. Send a letter to WISSWV, RR 1, Box 284-B, Dallas, PA 18612 or e-mail WISSWV@aol.com.

Judging will be based on these requirements:

High School Sports-woman of the Year - A senior girl who played a varsity sport this year, who is committed to fair play and serves as a role model for other players, who exhibits and demonstrates that athletics teaches life lessons, who possesses a passion for her sport, who represents her school in a positive manner, whose commitment to her sport extends beyond the actual game and who gives her all during every practice and game.

Sports-woman for Life Award - A woman who is a pioneer in female athletics who has a successful record as a player, coach or official, whose contribution has had an impact on women's sports, who promotes and enhances female athletics, whose legacy still affects young women who are on today's playing fields
