MAN & BEAST

Maggie Mae is a 5-month-old wirehair dachshund and Lily is an 18-month-old piebald dachshund. The girls have a brother Clancy, also a dachshund, who is 15 years old and never cooperates when the camera comes out. Owners Joe and Charlotte Kelley, Dallas, have been told that wirehairs are the clowns of the dachshund family and in the three months they have had her, Maggie Mae has proven that to be true. She has brought so much laughter into their home with her silly antics. At two months, she learned how to beg on her own, she is constantly trying to catch her tail and she wrestles Lily to the ground during their playing and chasing each other through the house. Maggie also likes to sit in front of the TV and bark at the characters. Recently, the Kelleys thought she had gotten out the door and, after yelling her name and walking up and down the street looking for her, they found her inside the closed pantry door, with half her body inside a bag of dog food, happily eating to her heart's content. The Kelleys' home was a quiet one until Maggie came along, but they say they would have it no other way now.

SHARE YOUR PET PICTURES WITH OUR READERS

Who's your best friend? If your very best friend in the whole wide world is your pet, we want to know about it.

Send us a picture of your pet - whether it be a lovable puppy, a slimy iguana or a parrot with an extensive vocabulary - and we'll share it with readers of The Dallas Post.

Tell us your name and address, your pet's name, his or her age, his or her breed and anything else you'd like everyone to know about your pet. Be sure to include your telephone number in the event we have questions.

Send everything to "Man and Beast," c/o The Dallas Post, 15 N. Main St., Wilkes-Barre, PA 18711 or e-mail the picture to us at news@mydallaspost.com.

If you send a picture and would like to have it returned, be sure to include a self-addressed/stamped envelope.

We'll publish the pictures in the order in which we receive them.

70 YEARS AGO

Another reflection of the trend which has sent business of the Bowman's Creek Branch of the Lehigh Valley Railroad from its high peak at the turn of the century to a point where passenger traffic has disappeared entirely and freight transport is at a low ebb came this week when the railroad discontinued daily freight service through

Still time to take part in auction quilt making

You still have a chance to be a part of Auction history if you couldn't attend the children's auction program last week at the Back Mountain Memorial Library. Quilt squares of fabric that will be incorporated into a colorful children's quilt will be available until May 2. Children may stop in the library during regular business hours to complete a square.

Lois Noble, a talented quilter in the Back Mountain, has volunteered her time and creativity to transform the colored squares of fabric into a beautiful quilt. Each child that participates will have his or her name sewn under their coloring picture on the quilt. The finished quilt will then be auctioned on the block during the 62nd Annual Auction scheduled for July 10, 11, 12 and 13 of this year.

The finished quilt will be on display in the library before the auction so that all the participants will be able to view it or have their picture taken by it before the auction. Call the library at 675-1182 for more information.
