

Waving flags, celebrating freedom

Mother Nature did all she could to provide the Back Mountain with one of the most beautiful days of the spring season last Monday. And Back Mountain residents responded in droves by attending the annual Back Mountain Memorial Day Parade. From firetrucks to marching bands to Scouts and kids with flags, it was a festive scene in downtown Dallas as area residents saluted veterans young and old, taking time to thank those who have served our country so that we may enjoy the freedom we have.
