

Sem class boasts many BMT students

Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School celebrated its 164th Baccalaureate and Commencement on Saturday and Sunday, May 24 and 25, as 133 seniors from nine states in the United States and 10 other countries completed their high school educations.

Sem held its commencement exercises at 1 p.m. on Sunday, May 25, on the Back Campus on North Maple Avenue, Kingston. Senior Kevin Boyle of Kingston gave the student address.

Derek Kopen, a junior from Shavertown, rang the school's Cokesbury Bell. Dr. Kip Nygren, Sem president, presented awards while Board of Trustees chair George Sordoni awarded diplomas. The day concluded with a reception for students and families on the Back Campus of the school on Maple Avenue.
