Students end season with annual theatrical show

The Major Performing Arts Center will end its 2007-2008 season today, June 22 with its annual end of the year theatrical stage show, "Bravo MPAC."

The show will be held today at 1 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. at Lake-Lehman High School.

Shown in the photo is the MPAC advanced performance team "Fame," who earned their second national title in 2008.

The duo of Mike Tornart and Kiki Frey also took the first runner-up award.

Discover a whole new world.

With Delta, the life that hearing loss took away is yours to experience once again.

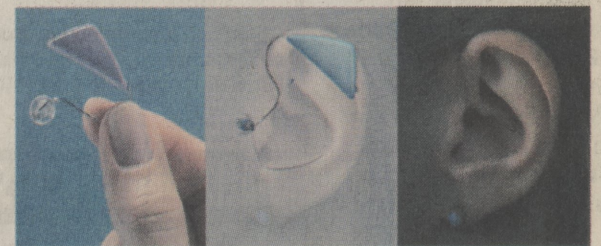

Good hearing makes life's diverse experiences more meaningful and memorable. But you may feel reluctant to take advantage of every opportunity if you can't hear clearly and understand what others are saying. Delta is a smart, contemporary hearing device that helps you expand your freedom to live each day with enthusiasm, spontaneity and self-assured control.

- ◆ Advanced performance: High-tech Artificial Intelligence automatically adjusts settings to enhance the quality of speech, even in noisy situations.
- ◆ Design innovation: Discreet triangular shape conveniently hides out-of-sight, comfortably behind your ear.
- ◆ Choice of 21 attractive colors and cool patterns: Match your Delta to skin or hair, or express your own individual style through unique designs.

You're not the type of person to let obstacles get in the way of ideas, activities and events. Hearing loss should be no exception. To enjoy life with hearing that keeps you active and connected, Delta is the choice that clearly earns its stripes.
