DHS FRESHMAN STEERING COMMITTEE BEAUTIFIES PARK

Members of the Dallas High School Freshman Steering Committee participated in a community service project recently at Francis Slocum State Park. The group's goal was to work as a team to improve the shrubbery near the swimming pool. The students pulled weeds, laid mulch and cleaned up the area. They also enjoyed a game of soccer during lunchtime. The Dallas High School Freshman Steering Committee, consisting of student leaders of the ninth-grade class, raises money for class events, such as the Junior-Senior Prom. The committee meets once a week to plan fundraisers and projects to help the community. The officers of the Freshman Steering Committee are Marc Noyalis, president; Kevin Muldoon, vice president; Drew Schaub, treasurer; and Emily Spring, secretary.
