

Sharing memories

They gathered – young and old – at Harveys Lake last weekend to share their remembrances of the lake and to make new memories.

The Fourth Annual Harveys Lake Homecoming brought both residents and non-residents of the borough together with all proceeds benefiting the Harveys Lake Beautification Project.

The weekend's events were kicked off with a homecoming dance on Friday at the Harveys Lake American Legion. Lake residents decorated their homes and boathouses in the spirit of the homecoming. Bill and Shirley Javer were announced as winners of that contest and received a $100 gift certificate from Villa Roma restaurant.

Official opening ceremonies were held on Saturday with Mayor Richard Boice and members of the clergy participating. Kids' Day, sponsored by Harveys Lake Fire and Ambulance, took place at Sandy Beach that afternoon where mazes, games, water sports and water wars were available. A party with food and a DJ was held at Sandy Beach Saturday night.

Following a Sunday morning breakfast at the American Legion, borough children vied for the titles of Little Mr. and Miss Harveys Lake with Peyton Shaw and Shaughnessy Conrad coming away with those titles, respectively.

The fireman's parade was held at the old Lake-Noxen Elementary School and the Fireman's Olympics followed where firefighters competed against each other in a bucket brigade, tug-of-war and other activities.

The Kiss the Fish contest wrapped up the weekend on Sunday with residents voting Emergency Management Agency Coordinator Charles West as the winner.

Other contest winners included Rick Roberts, chili contest; and Matt Hopfer, pie-eating contest. The Citizens/Group of the Year Award was presented to the Harveys Lake Protective Association.

Harveys Lake Homecoming Day at Sandy Beach brought friends and families together.
