Sunday, August 31, 2008

THE DALLAS POST Sports

Golf event supports Rotary

Temple Country Club beginning The entry fee is $100. with a shotgun start at 12:30 p.m.

Smith, returning chairman for the year." event. "Last year we had more than 90 sponsors and we would of Dallas sponsor and contribute September 8 for the Rotary Club like to make it 100 this year to to the Back Mountain Library, to determine how many will be in add to the success of our event." the annual Christmas Shopping attendance at a seafood and steak

Each advertiser will receive a dren, the Dallas/Lake-Lehman/ sign prominently displayed near a Northwest School Book Scholargreen or tee.

The Rotary is also looking for naries for third-graders, gradua- day.

Monday, Sept. 15, at the Irem teamed up with others in a group. more.

"We are looking for hole spon- Smith said. "We would like to see

Proceeds help the Rotary Club The sponsorship fee is $100. Spree for 45 Back Mountain chil-

The 25th Annual Dallas Rotary players. The format is a captain tion lock-in programs, the Lu-Fall Golf Classic to support Dal- and three crew members. Individ- zerne County Fall Fair, the Back las Rotary Charities will be held uals are invited and will be Mountain Food Pantry and much

For more information and an "Last year we had 100 players," entry for, call Smith at 696-5420. Sponsors must respond by Sepsors and players," said Kevin all of them, and more, return this tember 12 to allow enough time for proper sign printing.

Players are urged to respond by dinner with all the trimmings following the tournament.

An awards ceremony and raffle ships, Essay Contests and dictio- will take place at the close of the

HARDING CAPTURES FIRST PLACE IN TRIATHLON

Brandon Harding, age 15, recently captured first place in the 2008 Beware of Barracuda Third Annual Youth Triathlon at Eagle Rock Resort in Hazleton. Harding competed in the 13-18 male age group and was the age group and overall winner of the triathlon. He completed 200 yards of swimming, 2.5 miles of biking and a one mile run with a time of 18:53. The son of Brian and Dawn Harding, he is a sophomore at Dallas High School.

Macosky, Siminovich and Michno lead Jr. Mounts victory over Sailors

A TEAM

Dallas 36 Swoyersville 0

The Dallas Jr. Mounts A team had an impressive 36-0 win over the Swoversville Sailors to put themselves up 2-0 for the season.

The first quarter was an offensive show of power by the Mountaineers. Running back Zack Macosky broke free on the first play of the game to rush 60 yards into the endzone. Quarterback Jason Siminovich added two points on the conversion to put Dallas up, 8-0.

On the next set of offensive plays, running back Mark Michno broke free and put another six points on the board. Siminovich added two more points on the conversion with a QB keeper.

Macosky went to quarterback and Siminovich went to wide receiver and the pair connected on a 25-yard touchdown pass. Siminovich again converted the point after with a QB sneak and, at the end of the first quarter, Dallas was up, 24-0.

The Dallas defense, led by Nick Luzetski, Aaron Napkora, Chris Behm, Russ Newell and Mike Harrison, kept the Sailors from gaining a yard in the first half.

In the third quarter, QB Macosky hit

Members of the Back Mountain Bobcats C team enter the field to meet their opponents from West Pittston.

safety for Back Mountain. The Bobcats A team is off until Sun-

Swoyersville 0 The Dallas Jr. Mounts B team defeat- Whitesell and Mannello ran the ball just day, Sept. 7, when it faces Swoyersville, a ed Swoyersville, 24-0. Ryan Monk scored team that knocked it out of the playoffs a touchdown on a long run. And Cole Dixon added the 2-point conversion. Cole Dixon and Ryan Cheskiwicz also scored touchdowns for the winners.

In the second quarter, Brennan, first quarter with Ricky Morgan scoring on a 20-yard run behind the strong line blocking of Josh Holdredge, Carl Markowski and Abdul Almecky. Dalton Gattuso added the 2-point conversion with the key block provided by Ricky Morgan.

Throughout the balance of the first and second quarters, the Raiders defense was anchored by the line play of Blake Dyke, Mustafa Almecky and Justin Brown.

The Flyers scored on the last play of the second quarter on a 45-yard run by Zack Sott. The Flyers' drive late in the third quarter was stopped by a fine defensive effort by Andrew Chopka and Mark Bulford.

After stopping the Flyers, the Raiders scored late in the third quarter, set up by a 26-yard run by Jason Culp with Ricky Morgan capping the drive with a 2-yard blast behind the blocking of Morgan Boedecker and Devon Robbins.

The Raiders defensive effort was led by Morgan, Gattuso and Colin Pertl. Pertl led the Raiders in tackles as well as providing a key interception late in the game to stop any further drives by the Flyers.

D TEAM Dallas 22 PAGE 11

wide receiver Eric Zawatski for a 28-vard touchdown. Macosky added two points on the conversion then added six more points for Dallas in the fourth quarter when he intercepted a Swoyersville pass and ran 55 yards for a touchdown.

Back Mountain 30 West Pittston 0

The Back Mountain Bobcats A team had another impressive win last Sunday, shutting out the West Pittston Rams, 30-0. The offensive line led by Cody Long, Ryan Deremer, Nathan Patton, Josh Winters, Brian Durling and Justin Butler paved the way for the running backs' outstanding ground game. Brady Butler led the RBs with three touchdowns.

Shane Jacobsen and Brian Goode each added a 2-point conversion on the ground. Shane Jacobsen, Angelo Baltier, Justin Mucha and Nate Vario also had big gains on the ground for the Bobcats. Mucha topped off the scoring by completing a 15-yard TD pass to Josh Winters.

The defensive line, led by Long, Vario, Josh Winters, Chris Cooper and Evan May, applied continual pressure to the Rams' offense, shutting down their inside running game while the defensive backs, led by Jacobsen, Dylan Pilger, B. Butler, Baltier and Justin Winters, helped hold the Rams' offense to three first downs and no points.

The Bobcats had four sacks on the day. Pilger, B. Butler and Vario each had one for a turnover, preserving the victory for while J. Butler and May combined for the Raiders. the fourth sack and Nate Vario added a last year.

BTEAM

West Pittston 12 Back Mountain 0

The Back Mountain Bobcats B team lost, 12-0, to the Rams at the West Pittston field in a tough battle against the West Pittston Rams.

The Bobcats played great offensively and defensively, but failed to score led by Kieth Gillette, Cory Harris and against the Rams. Morgan Salter record- Matt Harrison. ed an interception.

The Bobcats are at home today against Ed-Lark. Kickoff is at 1:30 p.m. Kingston Township 30 proved its record to 2-0 with an impresive 30-0 shutout against a strong Forty Fort team.

Forty Fort 0

The Raiders capitalized on touchdown runs from Peter Capitano, Aaron Kliamovich, Omar Nijmeh and Corey Patrick en route to the shutout victory.Adam Niznik capped the Raiders scoring with a 2-point conversion.

Shawn Spencer, Matt Wargo and Jason Anderson provided a strong defensive front that allowed only three first downs for the Flyers. Connor Motley registered a key sack late in the game and Michael Olenginski forced a fumble

Dallas 24

Andrew Stubeda sacked the Swoyersville guarterback for a 2-point safety and Andrew Shurites nabbed an interception. Aiden Martinez picked up a fumble.

Helping on offense with strong blocking were Jude Moran, David Simpson and Shane Pitts. The Dallas defense was

C TEAM

West Pittston 34 Back Mountain 0

The Back Mountain Bobcats suffered The Kingston Twp Raiders B team im- another disappointing loss last Sunday, going down 34-0 to the West Pittston Rams.

Despite some great tackles by Bobcats Chris Allen, Zach Gabel, Nick Whitesell, Stone Mannello and RJ Driscoll, the Rams managed to score a touchdown and a 2-point conversion in the first quarter

The Bobcats got some great ball carrying from Daniel Schnable, Driscoll, Cameron Brennan and Whitesell, but the Back Mountain boys were unable to score. The Bobcats' defensive line of Nat LaBar, Eric Sweppenheiser, Ian Evans, Jonathan Adams and Bradley Adams tackles were turned in by Charlie Kuschke, Nat Hazeltine and Whitesell.

short of the first down, forcing a punt by Eric DeReemer. The Rams took a 16-0 lead in to the locker room at halftime.

Hazeltine received the kick to begin the third guarter. Driscoll and Mannello ran the ball for the Bobcats but the Back Mountain team turned the ball over on downs and the Rams took over possession on the 46-yard line. Great tackles by Gabel, Whitesell and Mannello weren't enough to stop the Rams and they scored again.

On the Bobcats' next possession, O'Donnell, Schnable and Kuschke all ran the ball for a first down but the Bobcats were forced to punt the ball away on the next series of downs.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, the Rams scored again but were unable to complete the 2-point conversion. La-Bar recovered a fumble for his team and the Bobcats' offensive line of Anthony Grandinetti, Alex Kristeller, Shawn Temarantz and Thomas Piatt blocked for the Bobcats before they turned the ball over on downs.

The Rams scored again but were unsuccessful at the 2-point conversion. Owen Morgan returned the kick for the Bobcats and O'Donnell ran the ball but the Bobcats fell short of a first down.

Kingston Township 16

Forty Fort 6

The Raiders C Team faced a tough opponent in the Forty Fort Flyers and won a hard fought battle by a 16-6 score. The made awesome plays while impressive majority of the game was a defensive battle by both squads.

The Raiders opened the scoring in the Swoyersville 6

The Dallas Jr. Mounts D Team looked solid in its home opener, beating Swoyersville 22-6.

The defense, led by Cole Dewees, Jacob Esposito, Joe Brennan and Xander Shaner, was stingy, giving up only two plays of more than five yards all day.

The offensive line, anchored by Sean Cuba and Blaine Rex, opened up some great holes throughout the game.

Dallas meets Kingston Township today in a battle of unbeatens.

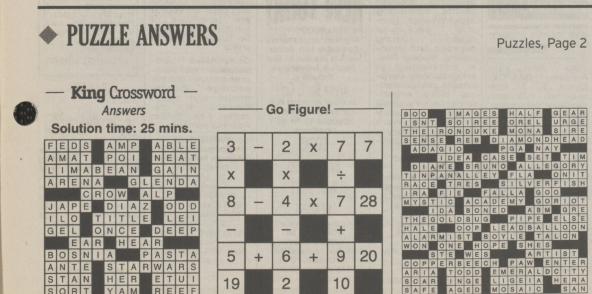

Kingston Township 34

Forty Fort 0

The Kingston Township Raiders D team continued its strong play with a 34-0 victory over the Forty Fort Flyers.

Mason Gattuso got the scoring started with two long touchdown runs in the first quarter. Derek Answini then got the Raiders on the scoreboard again with a long touchdown run early in the second quarter. Kyle McAndrew closed the first half with his first touchdown of the season. Michael Doggett punched in a 2point conversion and Gattuso connected with Answini on a conversion pass

The offensive line play was strong all day led by Cole Vonderheid and Troy Turinski. The only score of the second half was turned in by the Raiders defense. Michael Anderson forced and recovered a fumble and took it into the endzone to round out the scoring for the victors. Christian Motley, Ben Emershaw and Blake Perrego played strong defensive games.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Girls can play softball in fall

Girls ages 11 and younger are invited to sign up to play in the Back Mountain Little League Girls Softball Fall League. Games are played on Mondays and Wednesdays. For team and individual information, contact John Perez at 675-8324 or johp-

Baseball/softball group to meet Sept. 8

er4@epix.net.

The Back Mountain Baseball/Softball Organization will meet on Monday, Sept. 8, at the Daddow-Isaacs American Legion on Memorial Highway in Dallas. A board meeting will begin at 7 p.m. with the general meeting to follow at 8 p.m. For additional information, call Jack at 675-0939.

Gator Golf Tournament is set for September 13

Gate of Heaven School will conduct its annual Gator Golf Tournament on Saturday, Sept.13, at Mill Race Golf Course, Benton.

The goal of the tournament is to raise $5,000 to purchase badly-needed athletic equipment and supplies for Gate of Heaven students.

The afternoon will begin with lunch at noon followed by a shotgun start at 1 p.m. There will be prizes for closest shot to the pin and longest drive. Dinner and a prize raffle will follow golfing.

The cost of the tournament is $85 per person and $330 per foursome. The tournament is limited to 100 golfers (25 teams). Hole sponsorships are available for donations of $100 to $500. Please make checks payable to "Gate of Heaven Athletics."

For more information, contact Mike Tomalis or Theresa Gatusky, 639-5667.