

Sports

Andrew Gryskevicz works on his dribbling skills at a basketball clinic at the Rock Rec Center at the Harvest Assembly Church in Trucksville.

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Jacob English, left, gets help from Elijah Miller during a basketball clinic at the Rock Rec Center of Harvest Assembly Church, in Trucksville.

Learning the game

The Rock Recreation Center held its Third Annual Fall Basketball Clinic for boys and girls in kindergarten through sixth grade. The Rock Rec Center is located on Carverton Road in Trucksville.

Maxwell Paczewski gets direction at a basketball clinic at the Rock Rec Center at the Harvest Assembly Church in Trucksville.

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Stone Mannello is enroute to a touchdown for the Back Mountain Bobcats C team. The Bobcats suffered a defeat at the hands of the Forty Fort Flyers.

PJ Konnick leads Bobcats 'B' team to victory over Forty Fort

B TEAM

Back Mountain 24
Forty Fort 0

The Back Mountain Bobcats B team ended its season with a win by defeating the Forty Fort Flyers, 24-0.

The first touchdown was scored by PJ Konnick on a nice run around the end, followed by a 2-point conversion by Justus Shultz. The second touchdown was scored by Corbin Holcomb on a run up the middle and the 2-point conversion by Jesse Goode was successful.

After a defensive stand by Jeff Strazdus, Justus Shultz, Steven Darling, Zach Haddle, Nate Cooper, Bob Oakley, Paul Ciaccia and Adam Rosenkrance, the Bobcats got the ball back and scored another touchdown on a long 76-yard run by Jesse Goode, followed by a 2-point conversion by AJ Sweppenheiser.

The success of the day was helped by great offensive line blocking from Matt Durling, Brian Devine, Dan Sweeny, Matt Karuza, Morgan Salter, Matt Vacante, Devin Dickson and Jacob Corey.

B TEAM

Kingston Township 30
Exeter 6

The Raiders claimed sole possession of second place in the WVWYFCC with an impressive 30-6 victory at Exeter this past Sunday behind the tough running of Omar Nijmeh, Michael Oleginski and Corey Patrick. Nijmeh, Oleginski, and Patrick each scored touchdowns for the Raiders during a very physical battle with the Panthers.

Bret Storrs, Aaron Kliamovich, Michael Golden and Jason Anderson combined to sack the Exeter quarterback five times, keeping their offense at bay.

The Raiders ground game managed to grind out over 250 yards of run offense behind an offensive line of Connor Motley, David Edwards, Jason Morgan and Tanner Gattuso. Key defensive plays by starting safety, Peter Capitano, Kyle Piskorik, and Ryan Boedecker stymied Exeter's offense.

C TEAM

Forty Fort 34
Back Mountain 28

The Back Mountain Bobcats put up a good fight and came within a touchdown of victory but found defeat at the hands of the Forty Fort Flyers, 34-28.

On the first drive, the Flyers ran in for a touchdown and two points to go ahead early, 8-0.

The Bobcats took possession at the start of the second half and got great offensive blocking from Erik Sweppenheiser, Anthony Grandinetti, Ian Evans, Bradley Adams, Zachary Bloom and Joe Ciaccia, paving the way for carries by Stone Mannello and RJ Driscoll.

After the Flyers turned the ball over on downs, Bobcat carries were made by Stone Mannello, Nick Whitesell and Nate O'Donnell before Cameran Brennan ran up the middle for a Bobcat touchdown. The Flyers fumbled the ball on the kickoff and the Bobcats took possession. On the very next play, Stone Mannello ran to the outside and into the endzone for another Bobcat touchdown and Nate O'Donnell added the two points.

D TEAM

Kingston Township 24
Exeter 0

The Kingston Township Raiders D team improved to 8-1 on the season with a 24-0 win over the Exeter Panthers.

Mason Gattuso had two touchdown runs for KT and Derek Answini added one touchdown and three 2-point conversions to round out the scoring.

The blocking was solid all day with Parker Voitek, Devon Butwin and Christian Motley leading the way.

U-10 GIRLS SOCCER TEAM WINS TOURNAMENT

The Wyoming Valley Soccer Club's U-10 girls team took first place over the Columbus Day Weekend in a tournament held in Hazlet, N.J. The girls competed in the Hazlet Columbus Day Tournament and took on teams from New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania. The girls are shown with their coach at the end of the two-day event. From left, first row, are Kayle Nilon, Haley Goba, Tori McNulty, Riley Oremus and Elise Fellerman. Second row, McCaley Blazeik, Lexi Gaetano, Nicole Cavanaugh, Emma Lehman and Coach Chris Scharff.

WYOMING VALLEY U-12 GIRLS SOCCER TEAM CAPTURE FIRST

The Wyoming Valley Soccer Club's U-12 girls soccer team took first place over the Columbus Day Weekend in a tournament held in Hazlet, N.J. The girls competed in the Hazlet Columbus Day Tournament and took on teams from New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania. Local players included Becca Podskoch, Brigid Wood, Grace Schaub, Lindsey Oremus, Lydia Lawson, Kylee Saba, Madeline Ritsick, Hannah Stull, Greta Ell and Alana Wilson. The girls play for Javier Rodriguez.