Man & Beast

Brother and sister, Dixie, left, and Pixie are 6 years old and live with Jane Tomkinson, of Dallas, a senior at Dallas High School. They are both playful cats who enjoy eating, sleeping and playing. Pixie does silly things like chase her tail and hide in the bath tub while Dixie likes to hunt outside and chase the leaves in the fall.

SHARE YOUR PET PICTURES WITH OUR READERS

Who's your best friend? If your very best friend in the whole wide world is your pet, we want to know about it. Send us a picture of your pet - whether it be a lovable puppy, a slimy iguana or a parrot with an extensive vocabulary - and we'll share it with readers of The Dallas Post. Tell us your name and address, your pet's name, his or her age, his or her breed and anything else you'd like everyone to know about your pet. Be sure to include your telephone number in the event we have questions. Send everything to "Man and Beast," c/o The Dallas Post, 15 N. Main St., Wilkes-Barre, PA 18711 or e-mail the picture to us at news@mydallaspost.com. If you send a picture and would like to have it returned, be sure to include a self-addressed/stamped envelope. We'll publish the pictures in the order in which we receive them.

Sue Barnett stands in front of her Storybook character toy collection on display at the Back Mountain Memorial Library.

STORYBOOK CHARACTERS ON DISPLAY AT LIBRARY

Former teacher Sue Barnett is currently displaying her collection of Storybook character toys at the Back Mountain Memorial Library during the month of October. Barnett has been collecting these toys, including little Golden Books, puppets and stuffed animals related to Storybook characters for approximately 50 years. She began her collection because she loved teaching reading and introducing literature to young children. She adds that including a toy in her lessons made it more interesting. Some of her favorite pieces in the display include Peter Rabbit, Goldilocks and the Three Bears and the Hat Hedgehog. Barnett resides at the Dallas Masonic Village.
