

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH PLANS RUMMAGE SALE TODAY

The Seventh-day Adventist Church will hold a rummage sale from 8 a.m. to noon today, Nov. 2, at the former Back Mountain Antiques shop, located at the junction of Routes 29 and 309 across from the Fireplace Gallery in Noxen. Items included in the sale are clothing, household items, Christmas decorations, antiques, lawn furniture, linen and tools. Sale organizers shown here are, from left, Beverly Hammon, Women's Ministry Director; Colleen Mizenko, Andrea Davis, Shirlee Jones, Elaine Gayman, Margie Jakubowski and Cathy Reiser. For more information, call 570-675-3849.

SPANISH/ENGLISH STORY HOUR SLATED

The Back Mountain Memorial Library will offer a Spanish/English Story Hour for the first time this fall. Elsie Ryan, shown here, a Back Mountain resident, will conduct the story hour which will be held from 11 a.m. to noon on Thursdays, Nov. 6, 13 and 20, in the Children's Room of the library. Mrs. Ryan will read to the children in both Spanish and English, sing songs and fingerplays and even create a simple craft. Home-schooled children are encouraged to attend. The sessions will be open to all young children in the valley but registration is required. Please call the library at 675-1182 to register or for more information.

Treats in the trunk

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK/ FOR THE DALLAS POST
Carly and Charlie Kappler, of Dallas, were Dorothy and the Tin Man from "The Wizard of Oz" in the back of their parents' car.

Celebrating Halloween in a very different, not to mention very safe, way, parishioners of the Shavertown United Methodist Church decorated their car trunks to allow children to trick or treat in a safe environment. And there was nothing shabby about these decorations, either. There were spiders, pirates and all kinds of scary stuff, making for a fun evening for costumed children.

Showing off the back of their van which they decorated to look like a spider are Noah, left, Meghan, center, and Bev Daily, of Dallas.
