Jr. Mounts A team, Raiders D team are both headed for Super Bowl

A TEAM

Dallas 40 Kingston Township 22

The Dallas A team is headed to the Super Bowl after an impressive 40-22 win over Kingston Township last Sunday in the playoffs.

Dallas opened the first quarter by kicking off to the Raiders. Mark Michno forced a fumble on the kickoff but the Raiders kept possession. On the next play, Logan Brace recovered another fumble and ran it into the end zone. Jason Siminovich connected with Eric Zawatski for the 2-point conversion and Dallas was up, 8-0, in the first minute of play.

Dallas got the ball back again as the Raiders could not get a first down on fourth and two. With time running out in the first quarter, Siminovich recovered a Raider fumble to give the Mountaineers the ball on the Kingston Township 30-yard line.

Zack Macosky had two powerful runs from scrimmage to get the ball down to the 4-yard line. Siminovich added another six points as he ran into the endzone on a quarterback keeper and Dallas was up, 14-0. Kingston Township's Quincy Patrick broke free for a long run and got the Raiders on the scoreboard. Patrick also added two points on the conversion.

On the next set of plays, Dallas hit Aaron Napkora with a screen pass on fourth down to get the ball to the 2-yard line. Dallas ran the same play again and Napkora got into the endzone. At the half, Dallas led, 20-8.

In the third quarter, it was more of the Dallas offensive machine as Zawatski hit Siminovich on a 55-yard pass to put Dallas out in front, 26-8. Patrick again broke free from the Dallas defenders and had a big gain to get the ball to the 4-yard line. The next play was a pass to Patrick that was broken up by Michno on the Dallas defense. Patrick found the endzone on the next play and the Raiders narrowed the score to 26-14.

Late in the third quarter, Macosky of Dallas broke free for a 58-yard gain to put the ball on the 20-yard line. The next play Macosky connected with Siminovich in the endzone to give Dallas another six points. Logan Brace converted on the 2-point conversion and Dallas was up, 34-14.

Kingston Township would not give up as Patrick broke free again and scored six points. He also converted on the 20-point conversion to put the score at 34-22. Dallas scored another touchdown on the next set of plays as Siminovich broke free. With time running out in the fourth quarter, Zawatski intercepted a KT pass to end the game with Dallas earning a spot in today's Super Bowl.

The Dallas line was led by Brian Sotko, Matt Roncevech, Russ Newell, Connor Martinez, Michael Harrison and Ryan Monk. The Dallas defense was lead by Nick Luzetski, Mark Michno, Chris Behm, Aaron Napkora and Steve Mingy.

D TEAM

Kingston Township 8 West Pittston 0

The Kingston Township Raiders D team advanced to today's Super Bowl with a thrilling 8-0 victory over the West Pittston Rams.

The defenses dominated the day until the fourth quarter. KT started the winning drive with about three minutes left in the game behind the running of Derek Answini and Mason Gattuso.

The offensive line, led by Michael Doggett, Kyle McAndrew and Devon Butwin, started to wear on the Rams defense and got the Raiders to the 1-yard line with eight seconds remaining in the game. Answini was able to punch it in from there and Gattuso added the conversion for the victors.

Defensively, they were led by Christian Motley, Matt Maransky and Tyler Meyer.

The Raiders will face undefeated Dallas today at 11 a.m. at Wyoming Valley West Stadium. The Dallas Jr. Mounts defeated KT, 12-8, in week 3 for their only loss of the season.

The Back Mountain "A" team defenders give it their all in an attempt to hold off Plymouth.
