SCHOOL BRIEFS

Dallas student tours Civil War sites

Shawn Hughes, of Dallas, was among Misericordia University students in history professor Dr. Brian Caruso's course on the American Civil War who toured the Gettysburg National Military Park and experienced a Civil War re-enactment as part of a field trip to notable Civil War sites.

During the two-day trip, the students hiked through the battlefield in Gettysburg, visited Harper's Ferry, West Virginia, the site of John Brown's 1859 raid and toured the Antietam National Battlefield in Maryland.

The group was also visited by prominent Civil War re-enactor Bob Bosler, father of Misericordia University student Abigail Bosler, who portrayed Confederate President Jefferson Davis.

Health Science Career Day set at MU

Misericordia University invites all high school students for a Health Sciences Career Day from 8:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 11, offering them a look at professions in the health sciences and getting a first-hand look at how the various disciplines interact throughout the health care field.

The program also includes an hour-long lunch session where high school students will be able to talk informally with Misericordia faculty and students in the health sciences majors.

Space is limited and reservations are required. For more information, call 674-6463.

Kindergarten Program

scheduled at Lehman

The Lake-Lehman School District announces the second installment of the Kindergarten Readiness Program, which will feature Math Readiness, for children planning to enter kindergarten next fall.

The schedule is: Ross Elementary at 9 a.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 18; Lake-Noxen Elementary at 9 a.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 19; and Lehman-Jackson Elementary at 9 a.m. on Thursday, Nov. 20.

Parents are asked to register for the second installment of the program by calling Ross Elementary at 477-5050 or 256-7897, Lake-Noxen Elementary at 639-1129 or Lehman-Jackson Elementary at 675-2165.

This program is only for children who will be 5 years of age before September 1, 2009 and who are entering kindergarten for the 2009-2010 school year in the Lake-Lehman School District.

MU plans Adult Learner Night

The Center for Adult and Continuing Education at Misericordia University will host an Adult Learner Night from 5 to 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 19, in the Mary Kintz Bevevino Library on campus.

The event is open to adult learners interested in obtaining more information about Misericordia University's undergraduate and graduate programs.

An appointment can be made for Adult Learner Night, but registration is not necessary.

For more information about the Adult Learner Open House, contact Larree Brown, coordinator, Adult Education at 674-6451.

'The Hollow' at Misericordia

Misericordia University's theatrical troupe, The Misericordia Players, will present "The Hollow" by Agatha Christie as part of its "Murder and Mayhem" themed season at 8 p.m. November 20-22 in the newly-refurbished Lemmond Theater at Walsh Hall on campus at 8 p.m.

Tickets are available at the door for $5 and tickets for students and seniors are $3. For more information, call the Misericordia Players at 674-3069.

DHS JUNIORS WILL VISIT KING'S COLLEGE

Members of the junior class at Dallas High School will attend a mock college visitation at King's College on November 12 sponsored by the school's Parent Teacher Student Organization (PTSO). The program, entitled "Are You Ready for the Future?" will educate the class of 2010 on its post-secondary options upon graduation from high school. Parent chaperones are needed and welcome to join the group. Anyone interested in attending is asked to contact Robyn Jones, school counselor, at 674-7218. From left, seated, are Tom Landan, King's College Admissions Counselor; Mary Saba, PTSO parent; Robyn Jones, School Counselor. Standing, juniors Danielle Schmidt, Kai Szulborski, Rachael Stull and Sean Ziller.
